Remember Me

To the living, I am gone, to the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated, but to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen. I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart: your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved, the times we cried,
The times we fought, the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Obituary

Monalisa Terry Everett, the daughter of the late Frank Terry and Louise Mae Terry, peacefully departed this life on Friday, October 30, 2026. She was born on February 8, 1951, in Salisbury, Maryland. She was preceded in death by the love of her life of 48 years, Solomon Everett, Jr. and her son, Solomon Everett, III "Butch".

Monalisa was a hardworking and dedicated employee throughout her life, serving with commitment at Commercial Credit, Purdue Farms, and the Hampton Inn. She took pride in her work and in providing for those she loved.

Known for her fun-loving spirit, Monalisa enjoyed spending time with family, friends, and neighbors. She could often be found laughing, sharing stories, or bringing people together for good food and a competitive game of cards. She especially loved dancing and cooking, and it was not uncommon for her to do both at the same time.

Monalisa had a fondness for gold jewelry and enjoyed collecting charm bracelets, each one reflecting memories and moments she treasured. She was also the family's trusted babysitter, caring for many of her nieces and nephews over the years with generosity and devotion.

A proud mother and grandmother, Monalisa loved her family deeply. She was known for her generous heart and willingness to help others, often giving whatever she could to someone in need. Her love extended especially to her brothers and sisters, whom she cared for with the same nurturing concern as a mother.

Monalisa leaves behind many memories of laughter, family gatherings, good meals, and acts of kindness that will continue to be remembered by those whose lives she touched. Loving memories are left with her family and friends. Her legacy lives on through her daughter, Lisa Everett LeNoir (Von), One sister; Carol Terry, Four brothers; Melvin Terry (deceased), Mervin Terry (deceased), Frank Terry Jr. (Mary), Donald Terry (Aida) and John Terry, all of Salisbury, MD. Three grandchildren; Monet LeNoir, Brandee LeNoir and Perry LeNoir, all of Columbus, OH and a host of cousins and friends, far and wide.

Monalisa's presence will be sorely missed.

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.
