Obituary

Johnny Ray Durams was born to John Henry Durams, and Rebecca Floyd Durams on August 18, 1955 in Covington, Georgia. After relocating to Boston, MA, he attended English High and eventually Roxbury Community College in 1976. Johnny worked at South Bay chemistry lab in the early '80s and from there he went on to work at the Pfizer chemistry lab for 4 years until settling in to his position as head of security at a company in Brigham Circle.

Johnny loved the Lord and was active in his home church, becoming a Deacon at The Garden of Prayer Church of God in Christ, he served God's people alongside Reverend Henry G. Young and his wife Ella Young. Johnny will always be remembered as a kind, caring, loving soul that would give you the shirt off his back at any given time. His boisterous laugh and bright smile will be missed but remembered always by those who knew and loved him.

He leaves to treasure his memory his long time companion, Martha Williams, his brother Randy Durams, his niece Ashley White and husband, Lazarus White, two great-nephews, Zachariah White and Zayden White, and a host of family, friends, and loved ones.

He is forever in our hearts!
