The Reflections
OF A LIFE WELL LIVED

Mother Peggy Ann Farr was born March 04, 1941, to Pelton Farr II and Mary Julia Farr in Gary, Indiana. She went to sleep in the Lord on Saturday, October 10, 2026. Mother Farr grew up in Gary and attended Froebel High School. On December 31, 1982, she graduated from Indiana University Northwest with a Bachelor of Arts in African American Studies with a minor in Sociology.

Later in life, Mother Farr moved to Nashville, TN to live with her youngest son and his family. While in Nashville, she was baptized in the name of Jesus and received the Holy Ghost on August 31, 1997, at Grace Apostolic Church under Bishop Melvin Boyd. She was a member of the Usher Board while attending Grace Apostolic Church. She moved her church membership to Greater Christ Temple under Bishop Sherman Merritt, where she was a member of the Usher Board. She also ushered in the First Apostolic Council of Kentucky and TN. She later became a member of Temple of Grace Church under the leadership of District Elder Dr. Isaac Williams. Mother Farr was an honorary usher that made sure Temple of Grace ushers were on point.

When Tomorrow
STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me, And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry, the way you did today
While thinking of the many things, we did not get to say.

I know how much you love me, As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me, I know you will miss me too
When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand
The angel said my place was ready, in heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away, A tear fell from my eye
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, So much left yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible, That I was leaving you.

I thought of all the yesterdays, The good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, And all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday Just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you And maybe see you smile.

But then I fully realized That this could never be,
For emptiness and memories, Would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did My heart was filled with sorrow.

But when I walked through heaven's gates I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me, From His great golden throne.
He said, "This is eternity, And all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past But here it starts anew.

Mother Farr loved working with children and special needs adults. She worked in the Sunday School nursery at Greater Christ Temple. She worked at Bethlehem Centers of Nashville for many years as a daycare teacher.Mother Farr worked at Clover Bottom for several years until she retired. Although she was retired, she returned to childcare under the program Fifty Forward until she was no longer able to work.

Mother Farr loved her family and enjoyed being surrounded by her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Her love and life are a testament to what it looks like to survive in a world that can be harsh and uncaring at times but having the grace to endure and encourage her family to do the same.

Mother Farr is preceded in death by her parents (Pelton Farr, Jr. and Mary Julia Farr), sister (Beverly Farr), brother (Pelton Farr, III). She leaves to cherish her memories, her oldest sister Yvonne Biggs, two sons, Bruce Thomas (Barbara Thomas) and Richard Thomas (Denise Thomas). Her grandchildren, Racheal Thomas, Brittanie Thomas, Bruce Thomas II (Rachel Thomas), Isaiah Thomas, Daniel Thomas (Love' McDaniels), Raven Thomas, Katelynn Thomas, Kaleb Thomas, Joshua Thomas. Her great grandchildren, Malachi Whitlow, Anaya Whitlow, Trois Thomas, and Gianni Thomas. She is also survived by her extended family which includes cousins, nieces, nephews, and church family who loved and will miss her very much.
