Obituary

The Heart of a Home, The Soul of a Family

Linda Johnson McGlon, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully at her residence on October 17, 2026. Born on April 18, 1950 in Dale County, Alabama, she was the daughter of Mary Jean Clayton and Franklin Lee Johnson. Linda was a woman of grace and fortitude whose kindness touched all who knew her.

Linda was a graduate of D.A. Smith High School, Class of 1968. Shortly after graduation, she married her high school sweetheart, Terry McGlon.

She was employed as a seamstress for many years with White Knight Manufacturing Co. and later continued her work with Van Heusen. Linda was a faithful member of Friendship A.M.E. Church.

Known for a smile that could light up any room, Linda had a remarkable way of making everyone feel welcome as soon as they walked through her door. At "Mrs. Linda's house" there was no such thing as a quick visit. You might have stopped by for a minute, but you were surely going to sit a spell! Her warm spirit, welcoming heart, and gift for making everyone feel like family turned ordinary visits into cherished memories. When you entered her home, you weren't company -- you were family. She always had plenty of good food to share, and during the holiday season, plenty to admire, with every inch of her home beautifully decorated for Christmas.

Linda will be remembered for her loving nature, graciousness, and thoughtfulness ... qualities that endeared her to all who knew and loved her.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Jean and Franklin; her son, Jermaine; and her two brothers, Larry and Early Johnson.

Linda is survived by her devoted husband of many years, Terry; her son, Anthonye (Reshunda) McGlon; stepdaughter, Kiva Davis; two brothers, Rufus (Lisa) Crawford and Harvey (Regina) Clayton; six grandchildren, Damaris, Anita, Xavier, Shakivia, Kadidra, and Keon; and a host of other relative and friends, who will cherish her memory.

Linda's life was a testament to the power of love, kindness, and dedication. Her memory will be cherished by all who knew and loved her. She will be deeply missed, yet her spirit will continue to live on through the love, memories, and legacy she leaves behind for her family and friends.
