THE LIFE OF

MADONNA DYCUS

September 11, 1945 ~ October 21, 2026

Madonna Lee Dycus (81) of Scott, AR, born September 11, 1945, left her earthly home on Wednesday, October 21, 2026.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Louis May and Ruby Evans May; Step-mother Alma Bond May; her brother, Carl May; and her sister, Carolyn Stewart.

She is survived by her husband, Hershel Dycus; her children, Kenny (Rosie) Treadway, Vickie (Dale) Roper, Keith Dycus, and Leslie (Scott) Sutherlin; her grandchildren, Kenny, Kassie, Miranda, Ben, Ricky, Clint, Erin, Taylor, Becca, Jackson, Zach, Morgan, Morgan Ashley, Winn and Adam; 27 great-grandchildren; 5 great-great-grandchildren; and her sister, Marilyn Duck.

Madonna was a devoted wife, loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. But above all, she was a woman who loved unconditionally and without judgment. She gave her whole heart to her family and to anyone who needed to feel loved. Her love was not limited to those she called family by blood; she had a way of making everyone feel like they belonged.

Her faith was a cornerstone of her life, and she devoted more than 40 years to serving as a Sunday School teacher. Through her faith and dedication, she touched countless lives, sharing God's love and helping generations grow in their faith. Her service was a reflection of the same love, patience, and kindness she showed to everyone around her.

Madonna and her beloved husband, Hershel, shared 61 years of life together. They raised four children: Kenny, Vickie, Keith, and Leslie. Her love for her family continued through the generations as she helped raise her grandchildren and even some of her great-grandchildren.

She was a source of comfort, a helping hand, a listening ear, and a loving presence. She was a mother to us all.

Madonna leaves behind a legacy of faith, unconditional love, kindness, and devotion to family. Though she has left this earthly home, the love she gave so freely and the faith she shared with others will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Her lessons, prayers, and loving example will continue to guide the generations she leaves behind.

She will be deeply missed, forever cherished, and always loved.
