The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Glenn E. Waggoner

September 8, 1953 - October 15, 2026

Glenn Edward Waggoner, 73, of Sedalia, passed away Thursday, October 15, 2026, at St. Luke's Hospital on the Plaza.

He was born on September 8, 1953, in Pettis County, Missouri, a son of Clyde and Juanita (Furnell) Waggoner.

Glenn was a 1971 graduate of Smith-Cotton High School in Sedalia. He worked for many years as a meat cutter at Swift Foods in Marshall and later worked for Duke Manufacturing and Sedalia Outdoor Sports. In 2012, Glenn began working at Bryant Motors, where he continued his employment through the dealership's transition to W-K Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram.

Glenn was a member of the First Christian Church in Sedalia, where he also served as a deacon. He was also a previous member of the Sedalia Jaycees.

He was a beloved partner, companion, and friend whose life was filled with simple pleasures, cherished memories, and a love that will not be forgotten. For 32 years, he shared his life with his devoted partner, Marsha, building a bond filled with love, companionship, laughter, and countless memories that will forever remain close to the heart.

Glenn found happiness in the things he loved most. He enjoyed fishing, where he could relax and enjoy the peace of being outdoors. He loved baseball and the excitement of the game, especially when the grandchildren were playing. He could almost always be found (weather permitting) sitting on the front porch or back patio enjoying his favorite tunes on Yacht Rock radio or listening to the smooth sound of jazz. These simple pleasures brought him joy and were a special part of who he was.

More than anything, Glenn will be remembered for the life he shared with those who loved him. Thirty-two years together created a lifetime of moments, both big and small, that will be treasured forever. His presence brought comfort and familiarity, and his absence leaves an emptiness that words cannot fully express.

Though his time here has ended, the love he gave and the memories he leaves behind will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Survivors include his longtime companion of 32 years, Marsha Metzner; her sons, Brad Metzner (Lindsey), Justin Metzner (Kara), and their children: Jake, Maizey, Jackson, and Connor; and one nephew, Shawn Waggoner.

In addition to both of his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Daniel Waggoner, and one niece, Melissa Sarver.
