Your love was in the little things,
The kindness you would show,
The prayers you whispered on our behalf
The warmth we came to know.
You loved the Lord and walked in faith
With grace in all you'd do.
So many lives were gently touched
By simply knowing you.
Now resting in our Savior's arms,
Your heart is free of pain,
And though we miss you every day,
We trust we'll meet again.
Until that day, we'll carry on the love
You helped us see.
Our precious wife, mom, and grandma,
Forever loved.
How blessed we were to be.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me.
Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.
