Acknowledgments

The family of the late Kyle Lamont Jones wishes to express their sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to all who have extended love, support, and kindness during this season of sorrow. Your prayers, comforting words, and acts of compassion have brought us strength, peace, and solace during this difficult time. We are deeply grateful for the overwhelming outpouring of love shown by our family, friends, and community. Your thoughtful gestures have been a source of comfort as we navigate the loss of our beloved Kyle.

Although words can never fully express the depth of our gratitude, please know that every act of kindness and every prayer have meant more to us than you could ever imagine.

With sincere appreciation, love, and gratitude,
~The Family~

Remembering Kyle

Kyle Lamont Jones was born on June 30, 1972, to Phyllis Alexander Jones and Timothy Jones. He was preceded in death by his mother, Phyllis Alexander Jones; his brother, Lincaryas Jones; and his sister, Rhonda Jones. He was also predeceased by his maternal grandparents, Lessie Flowers Alexander and Mr. Ausby Sears Alexander; his paternal grandfather, Charlie Dinkins; and his uncles, Tyrone Alexander and Ronnie Alexander.

Kyle was affectionately known as “NY” and “Bundy.” His cousins called him “Team No Sleep” for the energy and joy he brought to every gathering. He enjoyed music, dancing, cooking, and developing his independent project label, Tru Jewlz. In his youth, he participated in 211 and Boogie Breakers in Auburn, NY. Kyle attended Auburn High School, Cayuga Community College, and Macon State College. Creative and talented, he especially enjoyed watching Law and Order. He worked at Legacy Assisted Living in Pooler, Georgia, until his health declined, and was proud to win first place in the workplace chili contest.

Kyle was known for his sense of humor and his ability to make others laugh during time with family and friends. He shared a close bond with his aunts and cousins, who grew up together in Auburn, New York, and later relocated to Fort Valley, Georgia. He enjoyed playing sports at the Booker T Community Center and maintained a strong faith in the “Most High.”

He is survived by his wife, Queana McGhee Jones; children: Corey Jones, Justin Howard, Kayla Jones, Kaya Jones, Kennedy Jones, Otha J. Redding, Shamarcus (Lekeyica), Ja’Quavius Redding (April), and bonus son, Donnell Stinson; grandchildren: Alfonzo Gordon, Kahlani Alysia Ann Blair, Riley Redding, Ava Redding, Jakari Redding, Romeo Redding, Jaylani Redding, Ryder Redding, Zaire Howard, Dakota Redding, and Raquel Redding. He is also survived by his stepfather, Wendell Jones; father, Timothy Jones; mother-in-law, Janice Davis (Charles); siblings, Timothy Jones III, Wendy Jones, Brittany Harris, Bruce Harris Jr. (Amara), and Dominique (Rickey) George. His devoted nephews are Jadan Love, Lakendrick Jones, JaDuan, Kendell, Jaylen Harris, and Rickey George, and his nieces are Londyn Baker, Sylience Jones, Nancy George, Leslie George, Shania Harris, and Brianna Harris. He is also survived by his paternal grandmother, Mary L. Dinkins; his loving aunts Cynthia (Howard) Richardson, Tangelyn (Johnny) Raines, Jaquelyn Fountain, Andrea (Hubert) Hanks, and Valarie Davis; and his uncles Min. Lonzie Thomas, Solomon (Vicky) Jones, Freddie Macallister, Duran Dinkins, Ellis, Johnny Lee, Steve Manson, and Gerald (Shirley) Alexander; as well as many cousins, family members, and friends.
