Let not your Heart
be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house
are many Mansions;
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.

Peace I leave with you,
my peace I give unto you;
not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled,
neither let it be afraid.

- John 14:1-3,27

Obituary

Treena Enoya Mayes was born on November 25, 1950, to Julius and Lillie Mae Mayes. She peacefully departed this life on October 3, 2026, at Mercy Fairfield Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Treena was the eldest of eight children and was a loving sister, aunt, and relative. She was preceded in death by her parents, Julius and Lillie Mae Mayes, and her brother, Julius Franklin Mayes.

As a child, Treena was introduced to the Catholic faith and attended St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church in Lincoln Heights, Ohio. In the early 1960s, she later embraced the Baptist faith, which remained an important part of her spiritual journey.

Treena graduated from Courter Technical High School in 1968. Pursuing higher education, she attended Southwestern College, where she earned an Associate Degree in Secretarial Sciences in 1970. Shortly thereafter, she answered the call to serve her country by joining the United States Army. During her eight years of dedicated service, she exemplified commitment and professionalism, earning an Honorable Discharge in 1978.

Following her military service, Treena worked as a secretary at the University of Cincinnati from 1978 to 1980. In 1980, she began her distinguished career with the Internal Revenue Service as a Tax Examiner specializing in small business taxation. Over the course of 36 years, she faithfully served the public with diligence and integrity until her retirement in 2016.

Treena had a deep love for reading, especially science fiction novels and biographies. She enjoyed traveling, shopping, attending concerts, and listening to jazz, R&B, and gospel music. A devoted sports fan, she cheered passionately for the Cincinnati Reds and enjoyed following sports of all kinds.

Treena leaves to cherish her memory her siblings: Sheila (William) Wilson, Chardsie Mayes, Cheryl Mayes, Jesus Mayes, Paul Mayes, and Mark Mayes, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family members whose lives were enriched by her presence.

Treena's kindness, strength, wisdom, and unwavering love for family will forever be remembered. Though she is no longer with us in body, her legacy and cherished memories will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
