

Paula Harris 57, of Hot Springs, Arkansas, transitioned peacefully at CHI St. Vincent in Hot Springs on October 11, 2026. She was born May 17, 1969, in Chattanooga, Tennessee to John Calvin Harris, Jr. and Donna Gail Conway.

Paula attended the Hot Springs School District and spent most of her life as a devoted caregiver. She had a loving and caring spirit and found great joy in helping and caring for others.

In her free time, Paula enjoyed watching movies and television shows, but some of her most cherished moments were those spent with her grandchildren. Family meant so much to her, and she treasured every opportunity to be surrounded by the people she loved.

Paula was affectionately known as "Aunt Pezzy" by her nieces and nephews, a name that reflected the special place she held in their hearts. Those who knew Paula will also remember her favorite saying, "Later Days," a phrase that will forever bring fond memories and smiles to those who loved her.

Paula was preceded in death by her mother, Donna Conway.

She leaves to cherish her memory her father, John (Joyce) Harris; her three children, Ralph Price, Kayla Harris, and Stephone Harris; her two brothers, John Harris III and Robert Roden; and her five sisters, Mary (La'Ray) Murphy, Darlene Harris, Gladys Atchley, Tonja Kenndy and Cindy Harris. She also leaves behind ten grandchildren, along with a host of loving nieces, nephews, extended family members, and close friends.

Paula also shared special lifelong friendships with Billy Ray Perry and her close cousin, Tosha James Edmonds, and held a very special place in her heart for her aunt Cindy Blair.

Paula's caring nature, love for her family, and the memories she created will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Though she will be deeply missed, her family will forever carry her love with them.

Until we meet again... Later Days, Paula

Sisters for Life

I never thought I'd lose you,
Never thought this day would come,
But here we are, standing without you,
Trying to understand why you're gone.
We promised we'd be sisters for life,
Side by side through everything.
But now that you're no longer here,
I don't know what tomorrow will bring.
I don't know what to do without you.
Some days, I feel like I'm going crazy.
I'm trying so hard to hold on,
Trying to stay strong each day.
But nothing feels the same anymore,
And nothing about this feels right,
Because a piece of me went with you
The day you left my sight.
So I'll wait here with my arms wide open,
With tears running down my face,
Wishing I could see you coming back
And feel your warm embrace.
And even if I have to wait forever,
My love for you will never end.
You weren't only my sister—
You were my family, my heart, my friend.
Until the day we meet again,
I'll carry you with me wherever I go.
Because we promised sisters for life,
And even death can't change that.
I love you, my sister,
Forever and always.
