

Tributes of Love

To My Husband, "Boot"

Through every season, especially as your health began to fail, I was honored to stand by your side, care for you, pray for you, and love you through it all. I would do it all over again because caring for you was an act of love, not a burden. Although my heart aches because you are no longer here, I find comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering and are now at peace.

Thank you for the love, memories, and life we shared. You will forever hold a special place in my heart. Rest peacefully, my love. Until we meet again, I will always love you.

Your Loving Wife,
Natasha "Punkin" Scott

To My Big Brother, "Boot"

It is hard to put into words what it feels like to say goodbye to you. You were not just my big brother—you were a part of my life, my memories, my childhood, and my heart. No matter how old we became or where life took us, I would always be your baby sister, and you would always be my big brother.

Forever Your Only Baby Sister,
-Lisa Shearl

To My Son, "Boot"

From the moment God blessed me with you, you held a special place in my heart.

No matter how old you became, you were always my baby boy. Your smile, your presence, and the memories we shared will forever remain in my heart. I will miss you more than words can say.

Rest well, my son. Mama
-Hazel Lee Scott

Celebrating the Life of Samuel E. "Boot" Scott

August 16, 1966 – August 17, 2026

Samuel E. Scott, affectionately known to his family and friends as "Boot," was born on August 16, 1966, to Sammie Edward Scott and Hazel Lee Scott. Samuel was raised in Saltillo, Mississippi, and later made his home in Tupelo, Mississippi.

At an early age, Samuel accepted Christ and became a member of Mud Creek Missionary Baptist Church in Saltillo, Mississippi. His early foundation in the church remained an important part of his life and upbringing.

Samuel attended Saltillo High School, where he graduated and began a life journey filled with family, friendship, and many cherished memories. He was employed at Stone Container, Gibson Container, Chickasaw Manufacturing, and Eljer. Samuel enjoyed being active and spending time with his family and friends. He valued the simple joys of being surrounded by the people he loved and creating memories with those who meant the most to him. Samuel remained active and enjoyed life until his health began to fail him. Even as his health declined, the love and support of his family and friends remained a source of comfort and strength.

On August 17, 2026, just one day after celebrating his 60th birthday, Samuel transitioned from this earthly life. Although his passing leaves a tremendous void in the hearts of those who knew and loved him, his family finds comfort in the many years, conversations, laughter, and special moments they were blessed to share with him.

Samuel is preceded in death by his father, Sammie Edward Scott; daughter, Tia "Toot" Scott; brother, Christopher William Scott; nephew Christopher Scott, Jr., affectionately known as "CJ"; maternal grandparents, William and Gracie Bobo; and paternal grandparents, Fred Scott and Bessie Mae Scott, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory with his wife: Natasha Hernandez Scott of the home; his mother, Hazel Scott of Saltillo, MS; and one sister, Arlisha Hadley (Terry) of Tupelo; his sons, Eric Adams of Nettleton, MS, Trey Johnson of the home; and a proud grandfather to Keshawn Scott and Taylin Berry. He also leaves a host of other relatives, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory. His family held a special place in his heart, and spending time with them brought him great joy.

Samuel's life cannot be measured simply by the number of years he lived, but by the love he shared, the relationships he built, and the memories he leaves behind. To those who knew him as Samuel, and especially to those who lovingly called him "Boot," his presence will never be forgotten. Though we mourn his passing, we also celebrate the blessing of his life. His earthly journey has ended, but the love, laughter, and memories of Samuel E. "Boot" Scott will continue to live in the hearts of his family and friends for generations to come.
