LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey
we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things
we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Gregory dedicated many years of his life to working in construction, demonstrating a strong work ethic and commitment to providing for his family. As his health began to decline, he was eventually forced to retire. However, retirement never diminished his generous spirit or his love for the community he called home.

Known affectionately as the "Mayor of the Neighborhood," Gregory was a beloved fixture in his community. He had a heart for helping others and was always willing to lend a hand to those in need. Whether providing financial assistance to neighbors facing difficult times or preparing meals to share with those around him, Gregory found joy in caring for others. His home and his cooking brought people together, and his generosity left a lasting impression on everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Gregory enjoyed the simple pleasures of life, including barbecuing, fishing, and listening to the smooth sounds of R&B oldies. These pastimes brought him happiness and created opportunities to connect with family, friends, and neighbors. His love for good food, good music, and good company reflected the warmth and welcoming spirit that defined his life.

Above all, Gregory was a father, grandfather, brother, and friend whose presence will be deeply missed. His legacy of kindness, generosity, and community service will continue to live on through the many lives he touched.

Gregory was preceded in death by his beloved parents, James Roche and Ruth Powell.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory his three children, Keara Roache, Rasheed Roache, and Tayana McLaughlin ; five grandchildren, Erin McLaughlin, Naim Reed, Myah Roache, Zylah Mitchell, and Zasir Mitchell ; and five siblings, Jackqueline Morrison, Vanessa Roache, Pamela Bauseman, Keith Roache, and Christine Powell. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever treasure the memories they shared with him.

Though Gregory's earthly journey has come to an end, the love he gave, the meals he shared, the neighbors he helped, and the memories he created will remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. He will be remembered not only for the life he lived, but for the countless ways he made life better for others.

May his memory be a blessing, and may his legacy of generosity and love live on for generations to come.
