Joan Maude (Waterman) Williams, the oldest of five daughters, was born to Lowell and Kathryn (Shaw) Waterman on April 22, 1933, in Storm Lake, Iowa. She was raised on a farm in the Rembrandt area and graduated from Rembrandt High School in 1951.

On January 13, 1952, Joan married Jr. Williams in Rembrandt. Following their marriage, they lived in Rembrandt and Storm Lake.

Together, they welcomed two children, a son, Mike, and a daughter, Debbie.

In 1956, they moved to a farm near Marathon and began farming. In 1960, they moved to the Webb area. In 1963, they purchased a farm northeast of Webb, where they continued farming until Jr.'s health declined.

Joan worked at Citizens State Bank in Webb for W.O. Hopkins for 12 years.

Jr. and Joan were blessed to spend 25 winters in Arizona, where they made many lifelong friends. Joan enjoyed line dancing and water aerobics at Countryside Trailer Park.

Joan was a talented seamstress who blessed many family members and friends with her beautiful handiwork, including quilts, table runners, porcelain dolls, and many other crafts. She loved sharing her handmade creations at the Webb Methodist Church's annual Christmas fundraiser.

Joan had a passion for traveling with the Farmers Bank Heritage Club. She enjoyed visiting many destinations throughout the United States with Jr. and some very special friends.

She loved working with flowers, putting puzzles together, and spending time with her family, her four sisters, and her most recent "family" at the Highlands.

She cherished the deep bond she shared with her walking buddies at the mall.

Joan was a lifelong, active member of the United Methodist Church in Webb.

Joan is survived by her son, Mike (Cindy) Williams of Spencer; her daughter, Debbie (Don) Sundall of Ruthven; six grandchildren; many great-grandchildren; her three sisters; and her lifelong friends, Doc and Bev Richardson.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jr.; her parents; her sister, Clara; and several brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law.

Always With You

As I rejoice in heaven, and watch over you every day, I try to show you signs that I never went away.

And though you cannot see me, I am forever in your heart. Trust that I'm here with you, we will never be apart.

So until we meet again, enjoy your life, be free. The love, the joy, the laughter- are memories shared with me.
