23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

A Life Remembered

Harold L. D. Gordon was born on September 3, 1951 to Charles Gordon, Sr. and Mary Gordon. He was the sixth child born to their family. Born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio. Harold attended Cincinnati Public Schools. He chose a career as a floor technician and worked for many years at the Federal Building. Harold enjoyed a drink, listening to music, building model cars, and spending time with his family. Those moments together will remain treasured memories for the people who loved him.

Harold was preceded in death by his parents, Charles Gordon, Sr. and Mary Gordon; his siblings, Donald Gordon, Gwendolyn Smith, Joyce Gordon, Charles Gordon, Jr., Deborah Hairston, Jeraldine Gordon, Donna Gordon and his daughter, Natalie Gordon.

Cherishing His Memory

Harold leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Josephine Gordon; his siblings, Charlotte Jeffries and Tony Gordon; his children, Tilena Thomas, Toni Thomas, Christopher Thomas (Holly), Aretha Harris, Joyce Gordon, Harold Gordon Jr. (Jessica) and Ladell Gordon (Natalie). He also leaves twenty-nine grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

His memory will live on in the hearts of his family and all who knew and loved him.

In Loving Memory of Our Dad

If we could write a story
It would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind, loving father
Who had a heart of gold

If we could write a million pages
we would still be unable to say just how much we love
and will miss him every single day.

We'll remember all that he taught us
We're hurt but, we won't be sad
Because he'll send us down the answers
And he'll always be Our Dad.
