Akeem Anderson

Akeem O'Neil Anderson was born in Montego Bay, Jamaica on August 3rd, 1995 to Ann Marie Anderson and the late Eugene E. Anderson.

Akeem graduated from Matignon High School, and later went on to study at Bunker Hill Community College. He was employed at the Sunglass Hut for several years, and later Canada Goose where he served as a Sales Associate and as one of the Canada Goose Ambassador models. In his most recent role, Akeem served as a Relationship Banker for Citizens Bank.

Akeem was known for his infectious smile, and for being the life of the party. He never turned down a good dance battle, he was not shy at all! From an early age, Akeem was fond of sports; from skateboarding, to bowling, shooting hoops on the basketball court, and of course football, he excelled at whatever he put his mind to. Akeem made so many friends throughout his lifetime; people were drawn to his charisma, and his fun loving spirit; along with his awesome sense of humor. Akeem loved his family and friends, and always made it a point to share that sentiment with them.

Akeem leaves to mourn his precious memories his mother, Ann Marie Anderson. Three sisters; Tyissha Jones-Horner (Carl Horner), Taneisha Wilson (David Ferrone), and Tammy Marie Anderson. He also leaves three brothers, Dana Jones (Angel Jones-Robinson), Emmanuel Anderson, and Jermaine Alonzo Brooks. He leaves two nieces and a nephew that were more like siblings to him due to their closeness in age; Angelique Murphy, Jada Horner, and Carl Horner, Jr.; along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. Akeem is preceded in death by his father, Eugene E. Anderson. He will be truly missed.

The family of Akeem would like to thank everyone that visited during our Nine Nights celebration. This time-honored Jamaican tradition allows us to share intimate memories and stories of Akeem, while also helping his ghost, or “duppy,” move on from his home at 36 Winston Rd, Boston MA, 02124. Thank you for helping us to honor both Akeem and Joamy’s memory in this way.

Following the services, Akeem will be interred at Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave, and a repass will be held from 3pm to 7pm at Faith Christian Church, 301 Havard Street, Dorchester, 02124.

Akeem’s passing is a great loss to his family and the community. We will always remember him for his infectious spirit, his love for life, and his dedication to those he cared about.

In honor of Akeem, let us all strive to live our lives with the same passion and joy that he embodied.

Poem

His Journey's Just Begun
By Ellen Brenneman

Don't think of him as gone away

his journey's just begun,

life holds so many facets

this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting

from the sorrows and the tears

in a place of warmth and comfort

where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing

that we could know today

how nothing but our sadness

can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched...

for nothing loved is ever lost

and he was loved so much.
