Words of Thanks

Your presence and comforting gestures have been a source of strength to our family during our loss. Your calls and visits have touched our hearts and we are forever grateful. We extend our thanks to Interim Health Care (Amy, Brad, Dustie, Kim, Lynnette and Lynne) and MK Wound Care (Kayla and Lawrence). Special thanks to Christopher Lee, Hai Tran, Kevin Lee, Joi Lee, Jace Lee, Minister Shanda Dunston and Twanda Hamilton. We extend our gratitude for your continued care and support. Your guidance and assistance gave us hope and rest during a difficult time and we are most appreciative.

Thank you to the Community of Daughters and Sons

Thank you to the daughters who adopted Mom and looked after her, visiting her in sickness and in health; Vikki Anderson-Brown, Shelly Boyd, Bertha Carr-Hairston, Gwen Coleman-Russ, Twanda Hamilton, Jeanette Thomas, Carla Williams, and Darlonda "LaLa" Williams. To the sons; Ira Barnes, Kenny Thomas, and Keith Woods for always being there when Mom needed you. David Overton, Troy Overton, Reginald Thompson and the entire crew at Lee's Retail Liquor Store for making sure that Mom made it to her car safely during those long nights at Music and More.

Mamie Jewel Jordan

Mamie Jewel Jordan was born in Coal Hill, Arkansas to James E. Hogan and Mayme O. Green Hogan. She was born second to the youngest of 10 children. She attended Wichita High School North, graduating in 1962.

Mamie gave her life to Christ at an early age and attended Grant Chapel AME where she served in the choir as a youth.

In 1963 Mamie married Mitchell "Mickey" Lewis and from this union they were blessed with three children. Tyress Lewis, Jacqueline Lewis, and Lamont Lewis.

Mamie began her career at Wesley Medical Center where she started as a tech in central service and eventually became the secretary to the manager. After 20 years, Mamie was promoted to Human Resource Manager. She used her position to hire applicants who otherwise would have been overlooked. Some of which retired from or are still employed at Wesley.

After retiring from Wesley Medical Center, Mamie worked at Lee's Retail Liquor Store with her sister Doris and brother-in-law James Lee, until the opening of Music & More in 1985.

Mamie and Mickey were the owners of Music & More Record Shop & Boutique. During the early years they expanded their vision to concert promotions, bringing many concerts to Wichita. Years later they added a smoke shop. For 33 years, Music & More Record Shop & Boutique and M&M Mart served the Wichita community providing jobs, supporting community events, and mentoring up and coming entrepreneurs.

The Wichita community responded in kind and helped to make Music & More Record Shop & Boutique a success. Mamie is also a NAACP Wichita award recipient and was recognized by the State of Kansas House of Representatives during Gail Finney's term in office. She often received gold and platinum records as appreciation from artists who were promoted by Music & More throughout the years.

Mamie was an avid Kansas City Chiefs fan and bonded with her grandson Joshua, nephews Christopher and Kevin over football and politics.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James E. Hogan and Mayme O. Green Hogan; her brothers, James Hogan, Wesley Hogan and Frank Hogan; her sisters, Lillie Chiles, Mildred Kelly, Ethel Storey, Geraldine Stringfellow, and Inez Dillingham.

Mamie leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Lawrence Jordan of 26 years. Her sister, Doris J. Lee (James); her children, Tyress Lewis, Jacqueline Lewis, Lamont Lewis, and bonus son Terry Menefee (Kathy); her grandchildren, Shyiesha Lewis, Lauren Segura, Joshua Lovett, and Wayne Menefee (Brittany); her brother-in-law, Mark Jordan (Pamela); her sister-in-law, Amanda Jordan; her best friend, Terry Lynn Stewart; her nieces who were like daughters, Cynthia Martin and Gloria "GiGi" Embray; her fur baby Diamond; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and dear friends.
