AND GOD SHALL WIPE AWAY
all tears from their eyes;
AND THERE SHALL BE NO MORE DEATH,
neither sorrow, nor crying,
NEITHER SHALL THERE BE ANY MORE PAIN:
for the former things are passed away.
REVELATION 21:4

TO THE LOVE OF MY LIFE

I Carry You In My Heart

I carry you in my heart.
It makes the pain a little lighter.
I remember our time together
when things were a little brighter.

You lit up every room you walked in too.
Your smile was a pick me up on days when I felt no sun.
When I was in your company,
I had no need to hide or run.

We had fun together,
talking about silly things.
How my heart ached for you.
How it now stings.

I carry you in my heart.
I try and convince myself
the pain is lighter.
I remember our time together,
when things were very much brighter.

Love Always. Gail

TO MY DEAR CHILDREN

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me.
I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me.
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy
and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me.
It was just my time,
but I will see you someday
on the other side.

Don't cry for me.
I am not alone.
The angels are with me
to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.

MR. JOE PATRICK

JUNE 28, 1939 - AUGUST 13, 2023

Joe Patrick, a dedicated father, worker, and beloved man, embarked on his final journey on August 13, 2023, in Conehatta, Mississippi.

Born in Decatur, Mississippi on June 28, 1939, to the late Lula Adams and Ben Patrick, Joe was the youngest of nine children. He attended Boler High School and afterwards joined a quartet gospel group.

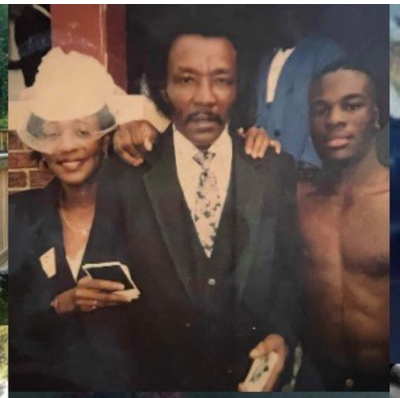
A hard worker and a jack of many trades, Joe worked many jobs throughout his life, with Green Acres, Newton County School District, EMCPD, and as a general store owner for the community of Conehatta.

Joe was a faithful member of Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church and served as a trustee until his health declined. He enjoyed the sounds of Lee Williams and gospel music until his dying day.

Preceding Joe in death are his parents, Lula Adams and Ben Patrick; children: Joe Patrick Rumbley, Chris Rumbley, Natalie Jones, Baby Patrick (triplets); sisters: Katie Mae Lampkin, Emma Lee Matthew, Annie Cry, Larene Brown; brothers: Bennie Patrick, Jessie Patrick, James Adams, and Glen Adams.

Joe's legacy will forever be cherished by his loving family, including daughters: Selest Johnson - Reamy (Arthur), Mia Dusene Rumbley (Troy), Michelle Rene Rumbley, Tricia Lynn Rumbley and Sunsuhrae Steel; Sons: Charles T. Grayson, Isaiah G. Rumbley, Charles L. Rumbley, Raheem Steel and Matthew (Scrap) Hunter; a loving brother, John Patrick; his companion and love of his life, Gail Johnson, who stood right by him and his family's side until he departed this earth; a special grandson, Markus Bush and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Though he may no longer be with us in person, Joe's spirit will forever live on in the lessons he imparted and the lives he touched. May his soul rest in eternal peace and in the comforting arms of the Lord.



You never know how strong you are until being strong is your only option! 💪 pops 💪

TOO COOL
