Acknowledgement

We express our heartfelt gratitude for the love, prayers, and support shown during this difficult time. Your kind words, cards, and thoughtful gestures have brought us comfort as we mourn our mother. Special thanks to Jean Blakey, Bernice Carr, and Erica Packer. Every act of kindness has touched our heart. Thank you for honoring our loved one's memory and keeping our family in your thoughts and prayers.

We Miss You Mom

If Heaven had a phone, we'd call you every day.
Just to hear your voice and tell you we're okay.
We miss you, Mom, more than you'll ever know.
And love you more than words can show.
Our hearts still ache, our tears still fall.
Until we meet in Heaven above.
We'll hold you forever in our hearts.

Love,
Lee Marvin, Serena, Alecia, and Rayshawn

Obituary

Roberta Carr, age 72, departed this life on Thursday, October 1, 2026. Born and raised in Cincinnati, Roberta accepted Christ and embraced her faith later in life and lived with a deep love for her family and the people around her.

Roberta enjoyed cooking and listening to R&B and jazz music. She loved to dance, laugh, mingle with others, and play Bingo. Her grandchildren were especially dear to her, and she was always willing to offer advice and encouragement. She also had a great love for dogs and cherished Daisy.

Roberta was preceded in death by her former fiancé, William Singerton; her daughter, Rebecca Shavon Carr; her parents, Lee Carr Sr. and Classic Carr (Jones); five siblings; and several nieces and nephews, as well as her dog Daisy.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory; children, Lee Marvin Carr, Serena Carr, Alecia Carr, and Rayshawn Carr; her grandchildren, Quartez Carr, Nwantu Carr, Avant Carr, Nwanta Carr, and Anessa Carr; her siblings, Bernice Carr, Timothy Carr, Darlene Carr, and John Carr. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends. As well as her childhood best friend, Ms. Maureen Poole, and the Kelly family.

Roberta will be remembered for her warmth, love and devotion to family, her generous spirit, and the joy and laughter she brought to those around her. Her memory will be treasured by all who knew and loved her.
