Acknowledgement

The family of Clarice R. Logan would like to extend their sincere appreciation for all kind expressions of sympathy during this period of adjustment. Your calls were touching, the flowers brightened our day, the food nourished our bodies and your prayers strengthened our faith. Whatever the act rendered, we simply say, THANK YOU May God richly bless each of you.

Obituary

On March 19, 1944, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, Margaret Marie Richardson and Austin Ray gave birth to a beautiful baby girl and they named her Clarice Roxan Ray. She was the first of five children.

Clarice began her educational journey in Okmulgee Public Schools, where she graduated from Historic Dunbar High School with the Class of 1963.

During her lifetime, Clarice gave birth to two, beautiful baby boys. She accepted Christ at an early age and attended Antioch Baptist Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma before moving to Oktaha, Oklahoma, where she remained until her death. She attended New Hope Baptist Church, where she served the Lord as a Church Treasurer, Mission President, Choir Member, Kitchen Committee and Building Committee. She also served as Treasurer of the Ntional Association of Colored Women, Inc. " Gardenia Art of Checotah, Oklahoma."

Clarice also worked with the New Hope Community members to bring city water to the New Hope Community. Additionally, she was the Secretary of the Logan Livestock Association. She was the Queen of the North Peoria Broncos Round Up Club of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Clarice loved Rodeos and Shopping.

On October 9, 2026, God chose a beautiful flower to put in his garden. Clarice Roxan Logan was preceded in death by her parents, a son, Sidney, step-sons, Ted Jr., and Timothy, her sister, Mary Alice Richardson, and a brother, Johnny Ray Richardson.

Clarice leaves to cherish her memory; her husband, Theodore Logan, Sr., of the home in Oktaha; her son, Terence [Alicia] Cherry, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; her step-children, Shanita [Curtis] Porter, Grandview, Missouri, Rosa Logan, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Terry Lynn [Roydale] Knotts, Wichita, Kansas, and Sonya Crosby, Muskogee; her sisters, Carolyn Richardson, Tulsa and Beatrice Wallace, Okmulgee, Oklahoma; 10 Grandchildren; 12 Step-Grandchildren; 13 Great-Grandchildren; special nieces, Pam Logan and Debbie Dan; along with a caravan of Aunts, Uncles, Nephews, Nieces, Cousins, other relatives and many friends.
