Let not your Heart
be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many Mansions;
if it were not so, I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.

Peace I leave with you,
my peace I give unto you;
not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled,
neither let it be afraid.

- John 14:1-3,27

Love Looks Like You.

There are moments in life when words simply aren't enough, and this is one of them.

To everyone who prayed, called, checked in, showed up, shared a memory, offered a helping hand, or simply sat with us in the silence–thank you.

Every expression of love has reminded us that Danielle's life reached far beyond what we could ever measure. Knowing how deeply she was loved has brought comfort to our hearts during an incredibly difficult time.

Thank you for helping us honor The Kid, celebrate her life, and carry her memory forward.

With love and gratitude,

The Owsley, Wagner, Lundy, and Present Help House of God Families

Obituary

Danielle Nicole Owsley, beloved daughter, sister, niece, godmother, friend, and lover of all things camouflage, completed her mission on Earth on Thursday, October 1, 2026.

Danielle was born on Thursday, October 4, 1979, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Dennis and Cynthia Ruth Owsley, both of whom preceded her in death.

Raised in Lincoln Heights, Ohio, Danielle attended Lincoln Heights Elementary School, Princeton Middle School, and Princeton High School.

Danielle was a "pew baby," born and raised in the church pews of The Revealed Holiness House of God under the leadership of the late, great Pastor Mary Lundy Welch. It was there that the foundation of her faith was established, and she began developing her personal relationship with God.

Throughout her years at Revealed, Danielle served faithfully on the Usher Board and lent her voice to the renowned Lundettes and Voices of Revealed choirs. In later years, she remained active in the Food Pantry Ministry and the Children's and Young Adults Ministry.

In 2024, Danielle began attending and serving at Present Help House of God under the leadership of Pastor James Ira Fitzgerald III. There, she was appointed Leader of the Hospitality Ministry and assisted with the aftercare of baptism candidates. In fact, hers was likely the first smiling face many saw as they emerged from the water to begin their new lives in Christ!

Danielle possessed a natural gift for customer service and connecting with people. Throughout her professional life, she held various customer service positions, both on the front lines and in management. Her tenacious work ethic, dedication, and commitment to excellence earned her numerous awards, accolades, and recognition.

Recently, Danielle rededicated her life to the Lord and expressed her desire to be baptized on her birthday, Sunday, October 4, 2026. Yet, just three days before that anticipated celebration, God saw fit to welcome her into eternity.

Obituary

It is with this assurance that we embrace the words of 1 Thessalonians 4:13b: "...sorrow not, even as others which have no hope."

Yes, we weep. We grieve. We feel the weight of her absence. Yet, we do so with hope in our hearts and precious memories to hold dear. We find comfort in the promise that, as we continue walking faithfully with the Lord, we will see our beloved Danielle again in the Morning!

To cherish her memory and carry forward her legacy of love, Danielle leaves three brothers: Julian Wayne Wagner, Jefferson Lee Wagner, and Ronald Javon (Celina) Owsley; two aunts, Valda Lynn (Bobby) Hilton and Mary Ann (the late Reginald Sr.) Wagner; godbrothers, Marcus Brown and Maurice (Sharon) Brown; her "Dearest" Friend, Pastor Yolanda Andrews; her special niece, Melissa (Diamond) Wagner Reese; and a host of beloved godchildren, nieces, nephews, one great-nephew, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Danielle took tremendous pride in the lives and accomplishments of those she loved. She celebrated every milestone, every achievement, and every success—even when the rest of us couldn't keep up with the number of people she was celebrating or the magnitude of their accomplishments!

She wanted each of them to succeed, to flourish, and to become all they were created to be. More than anything, she wanted them to build lives rich in purpose, achievement, and the same abundance of love that defined her own.

Her earthly mission is complete, but the love she gave, the lives she touched, and the legacy she leaves will continue to speak for generations to come.
