Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet fight

I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on

Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life

Submitted by Granddaughter Bartina Bowden

Pallbearers

John Oliver
Bernie Jones
Roosevelt Williams
Peter Bowden Jr.
Brandon Bowden
Aaron Carrington

Acknowledgments

The family of Carl Young would like to express our thanks and appreciation for your prayers, phone calls, texts, food and thoughts during our time of bereavement.

Celebration of the Life of

Carl Lewis Young

January 8, 1938 † December 11, 2022

Thursday, December 22, 2022
Viewing: 10:00 AM
Service: 11:00 AM

Davis Funeral Home

654 Cummins Hwy. Mattapan, Massachusetts

Rev. Sybil Dunwoody, Officiating

Life Reflections

Carl Lewis Young, born January 8, 1938 in Concord, North Carolina to the late Helen Litaker Young and Robert L. Young of Troy, NC. Carl departed his earthly life on December 11, 2022.

During his early years, Carl attended Peabody Schools in Troy, NC. He relocated to Boston, MA in 1965, where he began his career with Gordon Linen Company. He quickly excelled and was promoted to a route truck driver. Carl left Gordon Linen Company to take a position with Crown Uniform and Linen Service for the next 26 years. While there, he flourished; his professionalism and dedication made him a standout employee. He was recognized as the company's "Man-of-the-Year" several times. Carl retired from Crown Uniform and Linen Service in 1996.

Carl had several hobbies: He was an avid fisherman and took pride in knowing and choosing the best pole and bait. The camaraderie he shared with his friends on his fishing trips was special. Carl was a garden whiz, who loved the process of seedtime and harvesting. It meant something to share his crops with family and friends. Gardening was therapeutic for him. Working and socializing with his garden friends, in their own community, was an important time for him. Carl was a self-taught chef; he loved to cook, for just about anyone, but especially for family and friends. Though Carl had many specialties, one of the most requested dishes was his "Famous Seafood Chowder." People would line up for a bowl and return for more.

Carl was preceded in death by his wife, Maggie Lee Davis Young; three sisters, Sarah Lee McIntyre, Diane Shaw, Enid Chappell; and brother, Johnny Jay Young.

He leaves to cherish him: His father, Robert L. Young of Troy, NC; three daughters, Wendy Bowden of Albemarle, NC, Carlene Bowden (Peter) of Waxhaw, NC and Diondra Carrington (Richard) of Boston, MA; two sons: Johnny Young of Jackson Springs, NC, Ricky Young (India) of Winston-Salem, NC; two brothers, Robert Young Jr., of Troy, NC and Bobby Thomas of Aiken, SC; one aunt, Rebecca Little of Troy, NC; 12 grandchildren, Lamont Young, Bartina Bowden, Krystal Young Moton (Rich), Peter Bowden Jr., Keisha Bowden, Brandon Bowden, Richard Carrington III, Aaron Carrington, Jasmine Young, Brianna Young, Larry Clegg Jr. and Michael Clegg; and 14 great-grandchildren; nephews and nieces who were like his own, Marshall McIntyre, Marvin McIntyre, Arnetta "Lynn" McIntyre and Denise McIntyre, Angie and Laverne; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends; and an honorable mention of his very close friend, John Oliver, of Dorchester, MA.

Order of Service

Organ Prelude		Paul White
Procession
Invocation
Opening Hymn	Blessed Assurance
Scripture
Old Testament		Brandon Bowden
New Testament		Aaron Carrington
Solo Selection		Chris Bender
Remarks		Marvin McIntyre

Open floor limit to 3-5 minutes

Acknowledgements
Obituary
Solo Selection	Chris Bender
Eulogy	Pastor Sybil Dunwoody
Benediction	Pastor Sybil Dunwoody
Recession
Organ Postlude

Interment

MOUNT HOPE CEMETERY
355 Walk Hill Street, Mattapan, Massachusetts