FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Hannah Mae Lowe was born on April 20, 1947, in Marshallville, Georgia. A native daughter of Marshallville, she later made her home in Fort Valley, Georgia. She peacefully departed this earthly life on November 4, 2026, at Summerhill Senior Living Community in Perry, Georgia, at the age of 79.

Hannah's life was a beautiful reflection of the simple joys that make life meaningful. She received her early education at Douglas High School and devoted many years of her life to caring for others. Her dedication to childcare was demonstrated through her employment with Little People Daycare and Meadowdale Daycare, as well as her many years serving as an in-home childcare provider. Through these roles, she lovingly cared for and nurtured countless children, demonstrating compassion, patience, kindness, and a genuine commitment to making a difference in the lives of the families she served. Her work was more than a profession; it was a reflection of her caring heart and the love she had for children.

Hannah appreciated the quiet pleasures of everyday life. She enjoyed taking peaceful morning walks at the park, spending time as an active member of her church community, and relaxing while watching her favorite television shows. She understood that life's greatest blessings are often found in the ordinary moments shared with family, friends, and those we hold dear.

Although her earthly journey has ended, the memories she created and the love she shared will continue to live in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. Her life leaves behind a legacy of family, cherished memories, and connections that will continue through generations.

Hannah was preceded in death by her husbands, Willie Frank Lowe and Jimmie Stembridge; her father, Willie Fred Respress; mother, Claudia Respress; sisters: Jamie Respress Graham and Rosebud Jackson; and her brother, Tommy Lee Jones.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving family, including her daughters: Latonia Hale (Bishop Early Hale, Jr.) of Warner Robins, Georgia, and Sabrina Taylor (Malcolm Taylor) of Marshallville, Georgia; sons: James Respress (Claudia Respress) of Berlin, Germany, Raymond Respress of Macon, Georgia; and Darrius Lowe of Warner Robins, Georgia.

She is also survived by her loving sisters: Annie Ruth Rumph and Claudia Respress Felton of Marshallville, Georgia; Mary Lindsey of Miami, Florida; and Jerry Fields of Marshallville, Georgia; brothers: Willie James Respress (Willie Mae Respress) of Marshallville, Georgia, and Bobby Hightower, Sr. (Dorothy Hightower) of Warner Robins, Georgia; along with a host of extended family members and loved ones.

Her legacy continues through 13 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives who will forever treasure the memories of her life.

Though we must now say goodbye to our beloved Hannah, the love she gave, the lives she touched, and the memories she leaves behind will remain forever. Her presence will be deeply missed, but her life will always be remembered with love and gratitude.

Rest peacefully, Hannah Mae Lowe. Your earthly journey is complete, but your memory will live on forever in the hearts of those who loved you.

"Not a day passes without us thinking of you. Your presence is deeply missed, but your spirit remains close, reminding us of the beautiful moments we shared and the love that will never fade."
