

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Anniebell Tann Riley "Mema" was born February 16, 1941 in the city of Cincinnati to Jessie Tann Bridge and Rev. George Walker Tann.

She graduated from Hughes High School and Poro School of Beauty and Art. There she became a Cosmetologist and a first class beautician here in Cincinnati for 44 years. Some of her clients she had for 35 years or more including Ms. Christine Folds Brown, Ms. Mattie Roberson, the late Ms. Garnetta Robinson and many more.

On July 2, 1963 she married her 'honey dew' Dea. George Riley Sr. who has preceded her in death. They were happily married for 55 years. To this union one son was born, Min. George E. Riley Jr. She was born and raised in Revelation Baptist Church, which after marriage she later joined First New Shiloh Baptist church under the leadership of the late Rev. M. J. Mangham. During her time at First New Shiloh Mrs. Riley did great church and served the Lord. She was a part of the Shiloh Mass Choir, the MC at most of the programs with the church and was called on to give a response when the church would fellowship with other churches. She also worked with many young people from churches and schools.

Mrs. Riley was blessed to have four grandchildren who she simply adored and growing up she took them around the world until she became ill and was no longer able to continue those things. Later she was blessed with two great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents Jessie Tann Bridge and Rev. George Walker Tann.

Mrs. Riley leaves to cherish her memories: one son, George Riley Jr., special daughters, Tarmecia (Kevin) Hankerson and Racquel Harris; grandchildren, Jaleel Smith Riley, Jaila Riley, Deiondre Riley, Kadance Riley, Jaila Meeks, Jordan Meeks, Aalyiah Smith-Garrett and Ciara Smith-Garrett; great-grandchildren, Isaiah Smith-Riley, Knaomi Riley, Ariel Whaley and Khari Henderson; one brother, Lee (Sherry) Riley; one sister, Shirley Alexander; one aunt, Louise Goss; cousin, Randy Durham; godson, Michael K. Cash; goddaughter, Jeanna Keeling; god-grandchildren, Chaz, Travis and Mekaila Keeling and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

She will be greatly missed by all.
