

When I go
don't learn to live without me just learn to live with my love in a different way.

And if you need to see me
close your eyes
or look in your shadow
when the sun shines
I'm there.

Sit with me in the quiet
and you will know that I did not leave.

There is no leaving
when one soul is blended with another.

When I go
don't learn to live without me
just learn to look for me in the moments.

I will be there.

In Loving Memory of

Carter Anson Ahlstedt

April 22, 1975
Plainview, Nebraska

March 20, 2025
Neligh, Nebraska

Funeral Services

10:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 25, 2025
Zion Lutheran Church
Albion, Nebraska

Clergy Officiating

Pastor Carolann Hopcke

Pianist

Jill Nore

Poem

“So God Made a Farmer” by Paul Harvey

Congregational Hymns

“How Great Thou Art”

Special Music

“Save You a Seat” by Alex Warren “Dirt Cheap” by Cody Johnson

Pallbearers

Dalton Harrison
Heath Krebs
Wayne Choat
Tad Hansen

Tom Allemang
Trent Allemang
Jake Knox
Mark Mosel

Interment

Laurel Hill Cemetery
Neligh, Nebraska

Services Conducted by Levander Funeral Home
Albion, Nebraska

Carter Anson Ahlstedt

Carter Anson Ahlstedt, son of Bill Jr. and Judy (Anson) Ahlstedt was born April 22, 1975, in Plainview, NE and was baptized at Congregational Church at Brunswick, NE in 1975. He became a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Albion, NE in 2017. He attended Dist. #4 country school through the 5th grade. Carter then went to Neligh-Oakdale High School from the 6th to the 12th grade and graduated in 1993. After high school Carter attended college at Southeast Community College – Milford. He studied Diesel Mechanics and graduated in 1995.

Carter met the love of his life, Ann Choat in 2016 and they were married on September 2, 2017, at Zion Lutheran Church in Albion, NE. To this union Carter became an instant dad to son, Dalton and daughter, Brynlee.

Carter was a true farmer, enjoyed working the land and taking care of cattle. He was the kind of person that would take the shirt off his back for those he loved and even for a stranger. As well as being a jack of all trades. There wasn't anything he could not fix or build.

Some of his greatest passions were spending time with family and working on projects with his wife. Carter was the calm during a storm and the humor to his family and close friends.

Carter is survived by his wife: Ann Ahlstedt of Neligh, NE; two children: Dalton Harrison and Brynlee Ahlstedt both of Neligh, NE; parents: Bill and Judy Ahlstedt, Jr. of Clearwater, NE; brother: Matthew Ahlstedt of Lincoln, NE; sisters: Krista (Heath) Krebs of Grand Island, NE; Kimberly (Tad) Hansen of Chambers, NE; mother-in-law: Ardys Choat of St. Edward, NE; brother-in-law: Wayne (Jody) Choat of St. Edward, NE; sister-in-law: Alida (Tony) Kurtenbach of St. Edward, NE; nieces and nephews: Logan and Taylor Krebs of Grand Island, NE; Savannah, Maggie, and Shepard Hansen of Chambers, NE; Faith (Dylan) Haas of Genoa, NE; Weston (Carsen) Choat of St. Edward, NE; Claire (Caleb) Kohl of Lincoln, NE; Aislynn, L'Wren, and Logan Kurtenbach of St. Edward, NE; great niece Sunnie Jo Choat of St. Edward, NE; along with many other relatives, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his paternal and maternal grandparents: Bill and Dorothy Ahlstedt, Sr.; David and Lucy Anson; aunt: Bonnie Johns; uncle: Rahn Olson Sr.; and father-in-law: Duane Choat.