

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Acknowledgement

Realizing that each tomorrow is not ours to understand and knowing that God never wastes our pain, for every loss He sends to us is followed by rich gains. Today in our loss, our hurt and our pain, we recognize our gains in you, our friends and loved ones, for flowers, your cards, your calls, your whispered prayers and every deed of kindness have been a source of strength and comfort.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd,
 I lack nothing.
 He makes me lie down
 in green pastures,
 he leads me beside
 quiet waters,
 he refreshes my soul.
 He guides me along
 the right paths
 for his name's sake.
 Even though I walk
 through the darkest valley,
 I will fear no evil,
 for you are with me;
 your rod and your staff,
 they comfort me.
 You prepare a table before me
 in the presence
 of my enemies.
 You anoint my
 head with oil;
 my cup overflows.
 Surely your goodness
 and love will follow me
 all the days of my life,
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
