Robert was born, raised and attended school in the area of Wheaton, Illinois. Following his schooling, he began working for Jewell Food Stores, working as a butcher for over thirty-five years. During his time working for Jewell, he would meet Sally Lester, and they would be united in marriage on August 11, 1980. Following his retirement to Lake of the Ozarks, he began volunteer work for Lake Regional Hospital for twenty-five plus years.

In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing, boating, water skiing, trapshooting and thoroughly enjoyed his time volunteering at the hospital, creating life-long friendships and memories.

Robert was a loving father, grandfather and a caring neighbor & friend. Together we celebrate his life and his accomplishments and will treasure the memories he created for his family and friends.
