Obituary

On Sunday, April 30th early morning, God let him know that it's time to come home. MICHAEL ANTHONY MCBURSE was born on March 25, 1962 (to the late) Edward and Patsy McBurse in Brooklyn, New York. He was one of two children born into this union.

Michael grew up in Brooklyn, where he attended Thomas Jefferson High School. He loved life and always found a way to make a joke out of any situation. He was very athletic and enjoyed playing and watching sports. He was very good with his hands and was mechanical. He could fix cars, replace a window, he could do anything that you needed. He was handy inside and outside of the house.

Growing up he was large in stature, which made him a natural protector. All of his friends knew that "he would always have their back." In his later years, he especially appreciated the support from his friends, Sharon, Marvin, Dean, Anita and Winston who were really always there for him.

Michael pursued several careers in his lifetime, he was a real jack-of-all-trades. He worked in security, sales and maintenance. He loved being outside and traveling so he spent lots of time on the road. He traveled often to New York and Georgia where, he visited his sister many times. The two of them were really tight, she was the closest person to him, and I am sure that he is looking down hoping that she is okay.

Michael was predeceased by his Aunt Bonnie, Uncle James, Cheryl and Jerry. Left to mourn his passing are: his only sister, Renee McLamb; brother-in-law, Kenneth McLamb; two nephews, Kelly and Christian and his wife Paola; his twin great-nephew and -niece, Matthew and Madison; aunt, Annie Smith; cousins, Gwen, Deborah, Shawnise, Larry, Dwayne, Sydia, Christopher (who spent the last 3 years with him taking very good care of him), Devaughn, JayJay, Jeree, Shanique, Tiaria, Destiny, GaVaughn, Aaliyah, Dylan, Kionna, Brandon, Kemi and Darius; and a host of other family members and friends.

We Let You Go!!

Into the freedom of the wind and sunshine

We let you go

Into the dance of the stars and the planets

We let you go

Into the wind's breath and the hands of the star-maker

We let you go.

We love you, we miss you, we want you to be happy

Go safely, go dancing, go running home!
