

SAFELY HOME

I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty In his everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade? Oh! but Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread; and with Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still: Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's will. There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand; do it now, while life remaineth— you shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!

Lorraine Bepp

July 22, 1940 — July 28, 2025

Lorraine Elizabeth Bopp, 85, of New Salem, passed away peacefully at home on July 28, 2025, with her loving husband, Gordon, forever by her side.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 AM on Monday, August 4, 2025, at St. Pius V Catholic Church, New Salem, with Fr. Stephen Folorunso celebrating. Burial will be at St. Pius V Cemetery.

She was born July 22, 1940, to Isadore and Florina (Dame) Carrier in Bismarck, ND. She attended school at Huff, ND through the eighth grade and continued her education at Mandan High School. On July 24, 1957, she married Gordon Bopp and they raised their children Dion, Tammy, and Kyle on their farm south of New Salem. Lorraine was a devoted farm wife and worked alongside Gordon for many years. One special job was delivering meals out to the field during harvest, no one went hungry! She briefly worked at Farm Service Agency and for the State Tax Department.

Lorraine loved photography, calligraphy, making scrapbooks for all of her grandchildren, attending all sporting events, and was a huge supporter of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She took great pride in her yard, her flowers, and keeping a tidy house. Lorraine and Gordon loved to travel, some of their most memorable trips were to Hawaii, Alaska, Europe, and various bus trips. Their favorite getaways were to the Black Hills or visiting the mountains. Beautiful memories were made, and many pictures were taken. Lorraine also loved dancing with Gordon, spending time at the zoo with family, and in later years going for long scenic drives.

Her Catholic faith was the foundation of her life, marriage and family. She was involved in Christian Mothers organization and taught Sunday School in her early years at St. Pius V Catholic Church. Lorraine was also part of the Homemakers Club.

Lorraine is survived by her husband of 68 years, Gordon; their son, Dion Bopp and his children, Anna Cook, Allison (Travis) Wahl, Matthew (Felicia) Bopp, and Abby Bopp; daughter, Tammy Bopp; and son, Kyle Bopp and his children, Jessica (Travis) Klatt, Kyle Jr. (Vanessa) Bopp, and Jennifer (Chris) Bopp; as well as 16 beloved great-grandchildren; siblings, Rich (Marilyn) Carrier and Dale (Pam) Carrier; in-laws, Roger (Candice) Bopp, Joan (Vern) Stayton, Garry (Dona) Bopp, and Larry (Yolanda) Bopp; and numerous special cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Lorraine was preceded in death by her parents, Isadore and Florina Carrier; in-laws, Fred and Louise Bopp; siblings, Leonard Carrier, Annabelle Lanz, and Duane Carrier; and daughter-in-law, Diana Bopp.
