IN LOVING Memory

*I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth

Obituary & Life Tribute

Fredrick Coleman, Sr.

Fredrick Coleman Sr., 45, of Dermott, Arkansas, passed away on July 31, 2025, at Delta Memorial Hospital in Dumas, Arkansas.

Born on April 18, 1980, in Dermott, Arkansas, to the late Oscar Coleman, Jr. and Geraldine Wright Coleman. Fredrick was raised in a loving, faith-filled home. At an early age, he confessed his belief in Christ at Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor W.L. Plummer, Sr.

A proud graduate of Dermott High School, Class of 2000, Fredrick went on to build a life rooted in dedication to his family, his faith, and his work. He married the love of his life, Venus Presley, on February 8, 2008, and together they built a beautiful family.

Fredrick was the proud father of six children: Marcus Presley, Zariah Bryant, Fredrick Coleman, Jr., Kendrick Coleman, Zederick Coleman, and Kyleigh Coleman. He adored his two granddaughters, Braylie Moore and Jai'lei Coleman, who brought him great joy.

Professionally, Fredrick served with honor at the Arkansas Department of Corrections for 15 years, beginning in 2010. Rising to the rank of Sergeant, he was recognized for his exceptional service in 2022 with the Director's Outstanding Service Award, presented by Director Payne, for his valuable contributions at the Cummins Unit.

In addition to his career in corrections, Fredrick was a passionate entrepreneur. In 2020, he founded Coleman's Lawn Service, where he proudly worked as the sole owner and operator, serving his community with diligence and pride.

In his spare time, Fredrick enjoyed one of his favorite pastimes—playing pool. Whether it was a friendly match or a competitive game, he found joy and relaxation in the sport.

Fredrick's life reflected strength, independence, and unwavering commitment. He was a man known for his hard work, deep respect for others, and a love for family that was evident in every role he fulfilled—husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend.

He was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Geraldine Wright Coleman; his father, Oscar Coleman, Jr.; seven siblings; and his cherished mother-in-law, Brenda Presley.

He leaves behind a large, loving family, including: siblings; Detris Hurd (Barney) – Beloit, Wisconsin; Brenda Robinson – Little Rock, Arkansas, Yvette Turner (Derrick) – West Chester, Illinois, Oscar Coleman, III – Elgin, Illinois, Tolise Harris (Bonnie, Jr.) – Beloit, Wisconsin, Hope Thompson Moore (Bing) – Bastrop, Louisiana, Anna Green (Bruce, Sr.) – Monticello, Arkansas, Al Coleman (Larissa) – Schaumburg, Illinois, LaTonya Evans – Dermott, Arkansas, Kenneth Coleman – Dermott, Arkansas, Mary Coleman – West Chicago, Illinois, Joy Alfakih (Yousef) – Jackson, Mississippi; Kimberly Simpson (Tyrone) – Dermott, Arkansas, Titus Coleman (Mashima) – Bolingbrook, Illinois, and Yvonne Coleman – Dermott, Arkansas; Aunts, Claudine Wright Mumphrey – Dermott, Arkansas, and Alberta Coleman – Chicago, Illinois; Special lifelong friends, Lawrence Carter and Al Carter. Fredrick cherished them as brothers, and their bond remained strong throughout the years. A host of Nieces, Nephews, Great Nieces, and Nephews also remain to cherish his memory.

Fredrick will be remembered as a loving, hardworking, strong, independent, motivated, and respectable man. His presence will be deeply missed, and his legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

A Much Loved Granddad

The day that God called your name
It broke my heart in two
But Heaven needed an Angel
And the one he picked was you
I just wish he could have waited
And let you stay with me
But you have left memories in my heart And that's where they'll always be I just wish I could rewind the clock
Or make it turn real slow
I could have hugged you one more time Before you had to go
No matter how much time will pass
I'll miss you everyday Keep shining bright in Heaven
So you can light my way

We love you and miss you so much!

Braylie & Jai'lei

In loving memory of a very special Husband

When God was making husbands as far as I can see,
He made a special soulmate especially for me.
He made a perfect gentleman,
compassionate and kind,
With more love and affection than you could ever wish to find.
He gave my darling husband a heart of solid gold,
only my heart can hold,
He was someone I could talk to that no one can replace,
He was someone I could laugh with till tears ran down my face.
Next time we meet
will be at Heaven's door,
When I see you standing there
I won't cry anymore.
I will put my arms around you and kiss your smiling face, Then the pieces of my broken heart will fall back into place.
Miss You So Much

Forever in my heart, Venus
