

Obituary

Our beloved mother, Kathi Marie Rogers, passed away peacefully at her home in Moorhead, Minnesota, at the age of 63.

Kathi was born on July 16, 1962, in Fargo, North Dakota, to Doris and Ronald Kylo. She grew up in Fargo and graduated from Fargo South High School in 1980.

Kathi married the love of her life, Scott Rogers, and together they built a beautiful family, raising two children, Samantha and Jack. Her greatest joy was being a mom. She was the strongest, most caring, and most loving mother - always putting her family first and finding strength through her deep faith. Her faith guided her through life's hardest moments, especially through the loss of her husband, and she continued to be a source of comfort and love to everyone around her.

Kathi was preceded in death by her husband, Scott Rogers; her parents, Doris and Ronald Kylo; and her brother, Wayne Kylo. She is lovingly remembered by her children, Samantha Rogers and Jack Rogers; her brother, Mike Kylo; and many extended family members and friends who will miss her dearly.

Kathi's kindness, faith, and quiet strength will continue to inspire all who knew her.

A Huntin' He Will Go

It's the month of October
Fall is finally here.
My man's gone a huntin'
Tryin' to get that big deer.

So home alone I'll set
Just the 3 dogs and I
Awaiting his return
'Til he's back by my side.

With so much time on my hands
I'm not sure yet what I'll do.
Probably think about my honey
And pen a poem or two.

He'll be out in Montana
Drinkin' beers with the boys
It's a great bonding time
And they can play with their toys.

Let him have all his fun
I'd never begrudge him of that
But come Sunday nite
Home's where the action will be at.

~ Kathi Rogers
