Life Reflections

Teresa Ann Williams, daughter of the late Minnie Bell Johnson and the late William Williams, was born on July 24, 1965 in Lillington, North Carolina. She departed her life suddenly on March 3, 2023.

Teresa received her education in Baltimore, Maryland. She found employment in The Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. She took great pride and treated everyone with respect, compassion, and was always fair. During her employment with the department, she embraced her then colleagues, who turned into her closest friends/family. She retired after 23 years.

Teresa always put her family first. In 2009, Teresa married her best friend Tomas Lemon. Retirement gave her more time to spend with her husband, children, grandchildren and her mom who preceded her in death. Teresa took great pride in ALL that she involved herself in.

Teresa affectionately known as Reese, loved life and was always willing to help any and everyone. She made sure she gave everyone a nickname. She loved cooking and hosting events, especially cookouts. Her spirit was as PURE as GOLD. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, aunt, daughter and friend. She brought values, morals, love and laughter to all she knew. She was always there to give the best advice, encouragement, a shoulder to lean on, and she was an awesome listener.

Teresa leaves to cherish her unforgettable memories to: her mother who preceded her in death; Minnie Bell Johnson, her father who preceded her in death; William Williams, her husband; Tomas Lemon, her four children; Shawnelle Muldrow, Marcellius Garrison Jr., Chaquita Williams and Devon Garrison Sr., her grandchildren; Amia, DaShawn who preceded her in death, Marcellius III, Maddyson, India, Kenya, Devon Jr., Ja'Nilah, Marquise, Malik, Damari, Ice'lynn, Khloe` and Illya, one great-grandson; Ke'Mir, siblings; Benjamin Williams, Betty Cherry, Bernice Rice (Willard Rice), Brenda McLean, Charles McLean Sr. (Darlene McLean), Henry McLean Sr. (JoAnne McLean), Arvetra Johnson and three brothers who preceded her in death; Neil Ray, George McLean and Albert Lee McLean Sr. and a host of nieces, great nieces, great-great nieces, nephews, great nephews, great-great nephews, other relatives and friends.

Dear Mom.

When I look in the mirror I see you and I smile, feeling grateful and blessed that God chose you to be my mom. Not only are you my Mom but you were my best friend. You were always there when I needed you. Pushing me and encouraging me to live my full potential. I admired you, your beauty, your strength, your beautiful spirit and your pure heart. You were the true meaning of a mother, friend, teacher, supporter and protector. You were my safe haven. Thank you Mom for loving me unconditionally.

You were my everything, you were so amazing Mom!

Now that you're gone my heart is broken but I can still feel you close.

I love you and I miss you Mom.

I'm going to miss you calling me Mommy Girl.

Love Your Daughter. Shawnelle

Hey Mom ... just wanted to say that I LOVE YOU and that will never change ... they say time for pain will heal but no reasonable time will heal this pain ... memories for a lifetime ... enough to write chapters ... through hard times you would fill us with joy and laughter ... nothing could ever compare to the love that was shown ... for us as children but even stronger as we've grown ... missing your advice, hugs and unconditional love ... just for one more moment I'd hold you tighter than a glove ... more than blessed to have you for a mother ... you were created with purpose and perfection eliminating any flaw ... you were an angel in human form a precious rare gift from GOD ...

*I Love You Mother. Always & Forever
Mari*

To My Mom

Tbh with you mom, I feel I'll never be ok!
Time couldn't fill the void you left since you went away.
The time we spent and the memories I'll forever hold ...
Close to my heart as your story is told.
God has gained an Angel! Yes Indeed!
The perfect servant that the heavens need.
Fly high Momma with those wings you've earned.
I'm thankful for your life and everything I've learned.
B4 I go I wanna say it loud
I love You Mom & I'm gonna make U PROUD!

Your legacy will live on through us all.
I'm gonna miss you mommy, the hugs and the love you had for us all.

Dear Gramma

I love you. it's so many things I wanted to tell you. I wanted to plan a brunch so we could talk. I always bragged about cooking bc I wanted mainly you to taste my cooking one day and maybe be proud that I knew how to do so. I remember I'd be in the kitchen with you all the time watching you cook. You'd be showing me how to make certain stuff. You sure knew how to throw down in the kitchen Gramma n I aspired to be like that I always told you, you needed to go on Hell's Kitchen or one of the cooking shows cause I knew for a fact you'd win!! and just like Gramma Minnie you were a strong, kind and authentic women! I looked up to You, Mommy and Aunt Kita y'all were the best role models for me. You'd do anything and everything for everyone even if you didn't have much or wasn't feeling well you'd still do a good deed bc it was just in your soul to do so! You were so angelic. Everyone has their flaws but even with flaws you still shined bright!!! You still did wat god needed you to do. There's been countless times that you've been there for me. To give me a life lesson, to lend a shoulder telling me everything's gonna be ok. You'd cook dinner knowing I didn't eat all day, bring me a plate upstairs n tell me "Girl you need to eat stop being in this room all day depressed you need some light open up the curtains and be like whatever you going through, I'm here you can talk to me n family that's wat we here for n you got God to Tanay" then you'd come back upstairs to make sure I ate wat was on the plate. I remember I was crying in my room and she bussed in the door and was like Tanay wats wrong!!! she gave me a big hug one of those tight tight hugs, n she told me that I need to be happy, I need to focus on me n focus on wat will make me happy she gave me a real life lesson that night n I thank her for all those times she's been there for me no matter wat all she wanted was for me to be happy. She'd always encourage me to sing, to draw, to express my talents she wanted me to be a better me. You'll forever and always be in my heart! Always thinking of you love you, Gramma!

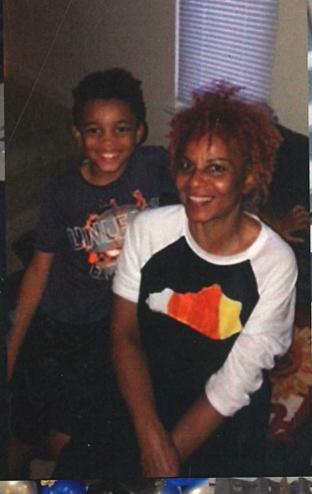

Lovingly Submitted. Tanay

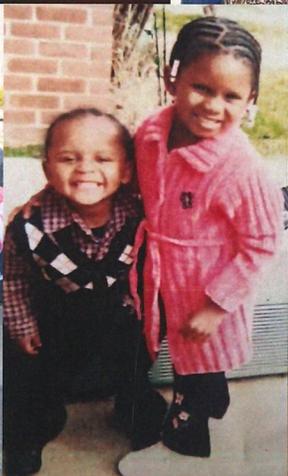

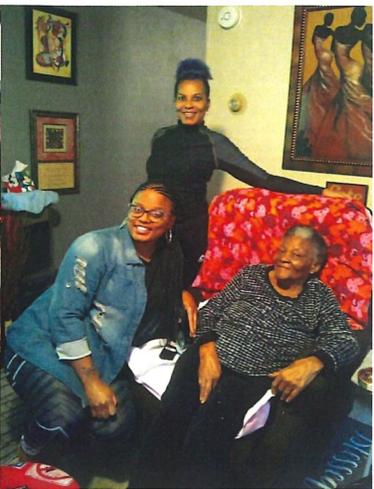

A Strong beautiful woman like you, I never thought you'd be gone too soon.
I miss your laughter, your energy, your Hi's and see you Later's. I never thought my favorite grandmother would be gone in a blink of an eye.

No more fighting, you'll truly be missed.

You were everyone's special gift.

Love. India
