

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

With heavy hearts, we celebrate the life and legacy of Carolyn Renee Butler, who peacefully departed this life on June 7, 2026, at the age of 61.

Carolyn was born on January 4, 1965, in Chicago, Illinois, to Corinne Johnson and Willie Williams. She graduated from Simeon High School before relocating to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she began building the family that would become the center of her life.

At the age of 20, Carolyn welcomed her firstborn son Keith, she later met the love of her life Henry L Butler, whom she married, and together they welcomed their second son Henry, by the age of 24, Carolyn gave birth to her daughter Shadae, completing the family she cherished so deeply.

Carolyn was a devoted wife for 35 years, a loving mother, and a proud grandmother. She dedicated herself to caring for her home and family while extending that same love and compassion to others. She served as a foster parent, volunteered in women's shelters and food pantries, and generously shared her gift of cooking by catering and preparing meals for family, friends, and those in need.

Known for her warm smile, generous heart, and vibrant personality, Carolyn loved bringing people together. Her social cooking dinners became treasured family traditions, and she was often the life of every gathering. She found great joy in helping raise her grandchildren and caring for those around her. Her selflessness, kindness, and unwavering love touched countless lives.

Carolyn leaves to cherish her memory her beloved brother, Stanley Johnson; children, Keith & Henry Johnson; her daughter Shadae & son-in-law Henderson Lyons Sr. and nephew/son Larrell Williams. She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren: Kingston Johnson, Dallas, Calvin, Gabrielle, Harlan, London, King, Madison, Madeleine Morgan, Marie Johnson, Keith, Da'eson, Amya Johnson, Henderson Lyons Jr. and Bella Lyons.

Although Carolyn's physical presence is no longer with us, the love she gave so freely and the memories she created will live on forever in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Her legacy of compassion, generosity, and unconditional love will continue through the family and friends she leaves behind.
