

If Roses Grow In Heaven

*If roses grow in heaven Lord, please pick a bunch for me then
Place them in my mother's arms
And tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek and Hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it everyay,
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away*

Life Reflections

Janeth McBean was born August 30th, 1953 to Ralph McBean and Lena May Connor in Tela, Honduras. Janeth spent her childhood and teens in Honduras until she relocated to Boston, MA at the age of 19. She remained in Boston, MA for the rest of her life. She worked as a seamstress at State Coat Front and then as a surgical Technician at Beth Isreal Hospital.

Janeth is most known for her giving heart and strong faith in the Lord. As well as her immense strength and warm everlasting smile. She was a mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, friend, teacher, Chaplin, and leader. A true wonder woman that we all love and miss. She is indeed in a better place now and her only wish was to follow Jesus Christ.

Nothing brought her more joy than spending quality time with her family and loved ones. It created love that will continue in her children; Samantha McBean, Sandro Carrasquillo, and David McBean. In her only surviving brother; Joseph Eden, in her niece Porcha Eden and nephews; Leon and Ricardo McBean, as well as in her grandchildren; Angelica Rowley, Sariah Aiguier, Izaiah Surita, and Tatiana Carrasquillo. In loving memory of Janeth McBean, may God rest her soul.
