Reflections of Life

Gregory Charles Green, affectionately known as Charles, was born on April 9, 1950, to the late Bailey Green and Helen Green. He attended the public schools in Jacksonville and graduated from Stanton Vocational High School. With a passion for cooking and serving others, he continued his studies in Culinary Arts - Florida Community College at Jacksonville. Charles later relocated to Atlanta, Georgia, where he served for many years as a manager with Church's Chicken. After returning home to Jacksonville, he remained devoted to his family and especially cherished visiting loved ones in Lake Wales, Florida.

He united with First Chronicles Baptist Church, where he served diligently as an Usher. He was steadfast and faithful in his service until he could no longer do so. His beautiful smile, joyful spirit, and love for telling jokes brought laughter and light to everyone he encountered. Charles was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers: Vernon Green, Richard Green, Michael Green, Charles Green, and Alan Green.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his siblings, a devoted sister, Maxine Green (Frederick), a devoted brother and sister-in-law, Leonard Green and wife, Alma, Steven (Gator) Green, Stephanie Bellamy, Donnell Harris (Marilyn) and Valeria Foster (Mark); a Godson, Jason Clayton; nieces: a very devoted niece, Sharon Myers and her husband, Billy, Eugena Lewis, Fredericka Green, Alexia Lovett, Danielle Harris, Minister Tammy Paden, Dawnesha Thomas (Robert), Tamara Russ, Shawntaye Stripling, Tonya Timmons (Albert) and Danielle Dunbar (Jamie); nephews, Scotty Paden, Boris "Bo" Ellis, DaSean Stripling and Adrian Green; cousins, devoted cousins, Tamara (Tam) Williams and Lucy Hawkins, Carolyn Jacobs, and Gwen Scott; two devoted sisters-in-law, Aldean Green and Ann Rivers; and his caretaker, Ms. O; a host of grand cousins, nieces, nephews and many friends.
