*On the 9th day, God looked down on His promised paradise and knew the farmer would need a partner, helper, and friend to celebrate the joy of His plan. Somebody with arms strong enough to keep up with the farmer, yet gentle enough to cuddle a newborn baby.
-So, God made the Farmer's Wife*

Together Again

Alice was born on February 11, 1927, in Mooreton, ND, to Thomas and Anna (Poss) Althoff. She attended rural school in the Mooreton area. She married Raymond Miranowski on October 25, 1949, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Mooreton, ND. They made their home on the family farm near Kent, MN, where side by side they raised their 13 children and farmed the land. Alice lived on the family farm until she was 97, when she moved into St. Francis Nursing Home. Alice was a great cook and a fantastic bread maker. She enjoyed sewing, gardening, and canning. She loved putting together puzzles and with each new puzzle she started she exclaimed "Ahh, this one is harder than the last!" The last few years, her dog, Buck, was her best friend and faithful companion.

Alice is survived by her children, Tom Miranowski, Breckenridge, MN, Tony (Jeanne) Miranowski, Breckenridge, MN, Joan Jandt, Pelican Rapids, MN, Dale Miranowski, Breckenridge, MN, Dan Miranowski, Bloomington, MN, Allan Miranowski, Kent, MN, Bob (Mary) Miranowski, Breckenridge, MN, Jerry (Lori) Miranowski, Fargo, ND, Connie (Rich) Hunt, Cando, ND, Paul (Tana) Miranowski, Breckenridge, MN, Tim (Dawn) Miranowski, Kent, MN, Don Miranowski, San Jose, CA; 23 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; and sister-in-law, Jane Althoff.
