REST NOW, POPS

Hey Pops,
Your love will live throughout the passage of time,
Forever treasured in this heart of mine.
Though we must say goodbye today,
Your precious memory will never fade away.
Your work is finished, your journey complete,
May you find eternal rest at Jesus' feet.
No more burdens, no sorrow, no pain,
Only everlasting peace in Heaven to gain.
You gave your love, your wisdom, your all,
And left us memories we'll forever recall.
So rest now, Pops, beneath God's endless sky,
For love like yours will never die.
Though we must part for a little while,
I'll remember your laughter, your love,
and your smile.
Until we meet again on Heaven's shore,
You'll live in my heart forevermore.
With Love, Your Son,

Chris Morris

FOREVER MY DAD

Dear Dad,
Thank you for being such an amazing father and for touching not only my life but the lives of so many others. I will forever be grateful and blessed to have called you my dad.

I will especially miss our long phone conversations—the laughter we shared, the love we expressed, the stories we told, and the wisdom you so freely gave. Those moments may have seemed ordinary at the time, but they have now become some of my most precious memories.

Your words, your teachings, and the love you poured into my life will remain with me always. Though I can no longer pick up the phone to hear your voice, I will carry your love in my heart and your lessons throughout my life.

Dad, thank you for the memories, the laughter, and, most importantly, for being you. I will miss you more than words could ever express, but I find comfort in knowing that the love between a father and daughter never ends.

Forever my dad, forever my love, and forever in my heart.
With All My Love, Your Daughter,

Chloe King

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The family of U.S. Army Veteran Deacon Joseph "Brother Joe" Morris, Sr. extends our heartfelt appreciation for every prayer, comforting word, thoughtful gesture, and expression of love shown during this time of bereavement. Your kindness has strengthened our hearts and reminded us of God's unfailing grace.
As we celebrate a life devoted to faith, family, and service, we find comfort in knowing that Brother Joe's love, wisdom, and enduring legacy will continue to live in the hearts of all who knew him.
May God richly bless each of you for your compassion and continue to keep you in His loving care. With heartfelt gratitude and abiding love,

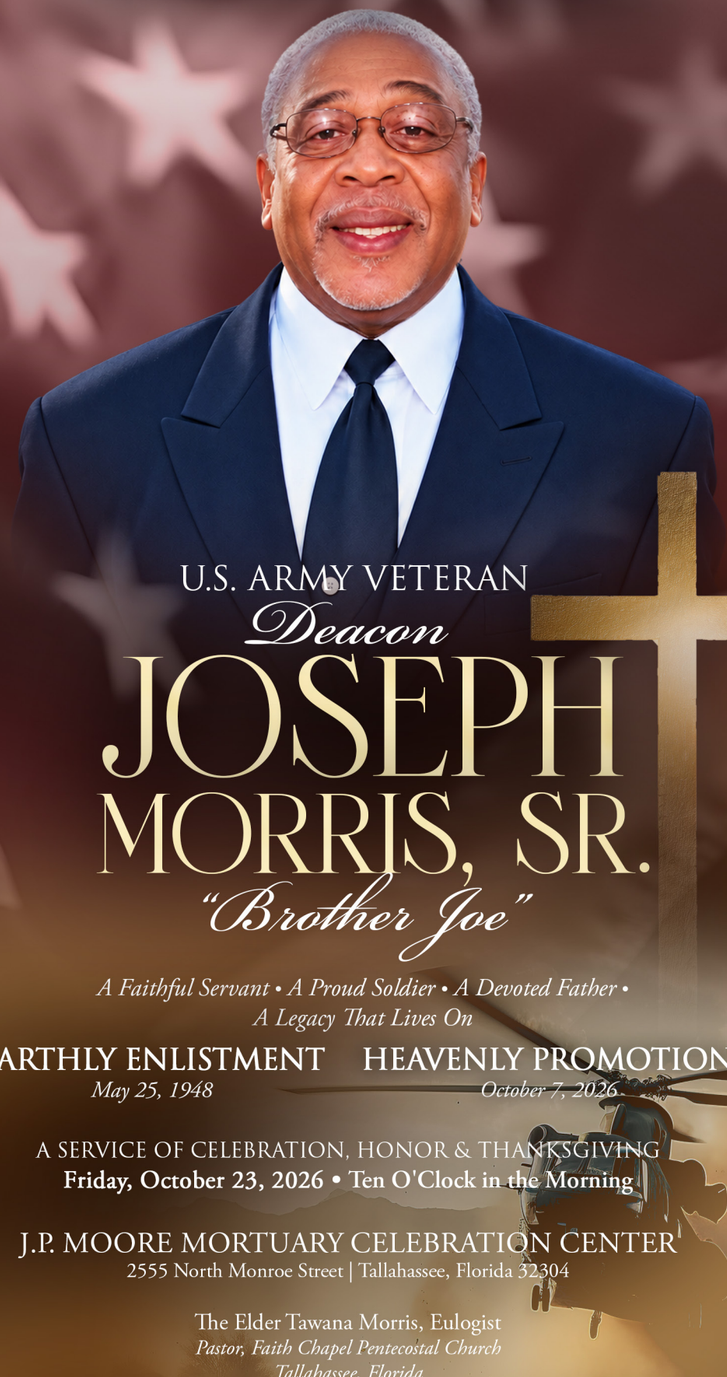

— The Morris Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one.
Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

A LIFE OF FAITH, SERVICE, AND LASTING LEGACY

U.S. ARMY VETERAN

JOSEPH MORRIS, SR.

"Brother Joe"

MAY 25, 1948 – OCTOBER 7, 2026

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."
— 2 Timothy 4:7 (KJV)

A life of faith, honor, service, and love is the lasting testimony of Joseph "Brother Joe" Morris, Sr., a proud United States Army Veteran, devoted father and grandfather, faithful deacon, and beloved brother. On Wednesday, October 7, 2026, at the age of 78, Brother Joe completed his earthly journey, leaving a legacy of cherished memories and unwavering faith.

Born on May 25, 1948, in Tallahassee, Florida, Joseph was the son of the late Deacon Alex Morris and Amanda Morris. Following his high school education, he answered the call to serve his country, enlisting in the United States Army on March 20, 1968. Serving honorably during the Vietnam War era, he demonstrated courage, dedication, and commitment to his nation. On March 15, 1971, he received his Honorable Discharge, completing his military service with dignity and pride.

Following his military service, Joseph established a successful career at the Chrysler Assembly Plant in Michigan, where he worked faithfully until retirement. A man of many talents and interests, Brother Joe enjoyed fishing, working with computers, creating music, exploring entrepreneurial opportunities, and helping others.

Above all, Brother Joe was a man who loved the Lord. As a devoted Deacon of Mt. Zion Church in Detroit, Michigan, he faithfully served God and his church family. His Christian walk reflected a heart committed to ministry, compassion, and service to others. Family remained among Joseph's greatest blessings. He treasured the bonds of love, the joy of fatherhood and grandfatherhood, and the opportunity to leave a meaningful legacy for generations to come.

Joseph was preceded in death by his loving parents, Deacon Alex Morris and Amanda Morris; and his brothers, Countious Morris and Alexander Morris, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved children, Brandon Morris, Chris Morris, and Chloe King; five grandchildren, Morgan Smith, Zhoe King, Jonathan Morris, Sahlena Morris, and Savannah Morris; and his cherished siblings, Elder Andrew Morris (Shirley), Elizabeth Howard, John Morris, Louise Jefferson (Herman), Mark Morris, Matthew Morris (Patricia), Issac Morris, Yvonne Cooper (Timothy), Vivian Morris, and Ruth Pouncey.

His legacy will also live on through a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, fellow veterans, church family, and dear friends.

As we celebrate the life of Brother Joe, we honor a man who served his country with courage, labored with dignity, loved his family with devotion, and served his God with faithfulness. Though his earthly assignment is complete, the love he shared and the lives he touched will forever bear witness to a life well lived.

Rest well, Soldier. Your duty is complete, your faith is your testimony, and your legacy shall live on.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant." — Matthew 25:21 (KJV)
Honorably Served. Deeply Loved. Forever Remembered.
