

Hymns

It is well with my soul

When peace like a river attended my way
When sorrows like sea billows roll
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say
It is well, it is well, with my soul

*It is well (it is well)
With my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul*

*My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought
My sin, not in part but the whole
Is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, oh, my soul*

*It is well (it is well)
With my soul (with my soul)
It is well, it is well with my soul*

*And Lord haste the day when my faith shall be sight
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll
The trumpet shall sound and the Lord shall descend
Even so, it is well with my soul*

*It is well (it is well)
With my soul (with my soul)
Oh it is well, it is well with my soul
It is well with my soul*

First Reading - Psalms 23:1-4

1 The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.
2 He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
3 he refreshes my soul.
He guides me along the right paths
for his name's sake.
4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley,[a]
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind, but now I see

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed*

*Through many dangers, toils, and snares
We have already come
'Twas grace that brought us safe thus far
And grace will lead us home*

*When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we've first begun
Than when we've first begun*

Second Reading - John 14:1-3

"Do not let your hearts be troubled.
You believe in God[a]; believe also in me.
My Father's house has many rooms;
if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you?
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Eulogy

Eulogy for Rayford Kipchumba Boit

We gather here today with heavy hearts to celebrate and honor the life of Rayford Kipchumba Boit, a remarkable man who touched the lives of many with his love, kindness, and generosity. Born in February 26th, 1986 in Potter County, Texas, Rayford was the second child of Elizabeth Cheptoo and the late Gabriel Boit, and a beloved brother to Michelle Boit and Melissa Boit of Lubbock, Texas. From the very beginning, Rayford radiated warmth, determination, and a sense of purpose that defined the beautiful life he lived.

Early Life and Education

Rayford Kipchumba Boit spent his formative years at Hill School Primary Eldoret, where he began his journey of education for his Elementary and Middle school. His academic pursuits took him to Moi High School Sirgoi and later completed his High School Education at Leseru High School Eldoret, where he graduated in 2005. Known for his charismatic personality and exceptional ability to form meaningful relationships, Rayford carried his love for learning and connection into his professional life. Over the years, he worked in various roles at stores, restaurants, Continental Airlines, and Baker Hughes before embracing entrepreneurship in the trucking industry a path that allowed him to provide for his family and pursue his dreams.

Family and Love

Rayford's heart was full of love, and it was this love that defined him as a husband, father, and friend. He met the love of his life, Emmy Koskei, and their marriage was a testament to devotion and partnership. Together, they built a beautiful family, Ray was a loving Dad to Ethan Boit, Leon Kipchumba, Elijah Boit, Jeremiah Boit, Aaliyah Boit, and Tendai Cherop. As a husband and father, Rayford was selfless, compassionate, and fiercely protective. His family was his pride and joy, and his unwavering faith in God guided him as a provider and nurturer.

A Legacy of Kindness

Rayford's life was defined by humility, generosity, and a deep sense of responsibility for those around him. He was a beloved cousin, uncle, in-law, friend, and neighbor who left an indelible mark on everyone he encountered. Whether through a kind word, a helping hand, or his infectious smile, Rayford made the world a better place.

Final Days

Though Rayford faced health challenges, including high blood pressure since 2018, he remained resilient and strong. On Tuesday, December 31, 2024, he passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. Efforts by his wife and close friends to reach him that day reflect the bond he shared with those who loved him so deeply.

Today, as we bid farewell to Rayford, we celebrate a life well-lived. His legacy of love, faith, and kindness will forever remain in our hearts. Though he may no longer walk among us, his spirit will continue to guide and inspire us, and his memory will forever be a source of comfort and strength. May Rayford Kipchumba Boit rest in eternal peace.
