

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Obituary

James departed this earthly life and began a new one with our Lord.

Born to the union of Grady and Suddie Williams on September 9, 1930.

He accepted Christ as his personal savior and at an early age. He grew up at First Baptist Church of Oakley along with his father Deacon Grady Williams.

James was joined in Holy Matrimony to Florence Isabell Maxberry on June 30, 1949. To this union they had four beautiful daughters Maxine G. Harper, Grace K. Williams, Willa M. England (Edsel) and Susan A. Artis (Michael). One son Randy Brown (Norma).

James worked at Pappas Dry Cleaning, Cincinnati Milaeron and Deer Park Dry Cleaning where he retired from.

James was a faithful Bengal and Reds fan.

Along with his children he also leaves to celebrate his life his four grandchildren: Lisa R. Harper, James R. Williams (son) Courtney R. Morrow, and Joshua T. England; one great granddaughter, Nylah R. Harper and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends
