

Obituary

Gloria Ann Moore was born on November 5, 1961, in Centreville, Alabama, to the late Ida Mae Gray and William Howard Griffin. She was raised in a loving home alongside six siblings, and had a total of ten siblings in all.

Gloria later moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she attended Withrow High School. While still in school, she followed her passion for beauty and enrolled in cosmetology classes. In 1978, she married Clarence Moore Sr., and together they were blessed with three children.

A devoted mother and grandmother, Gloria had a heart of gold. There was nothing she wouldn't do for those she loved. Her kindness, strength, and generosity left a lasting mark on everyone who knew her. She was the proud mother of Tishun Moore, Claressa Chapman, and Clarence Moore Jr., and the loving grandmother of 14 grandchildren: Dejuan, Daesha, Myesha, Elijah, Coron, Gloria, Treyana, C'Aaliyah, Verniyah, Canijah, Alex, Andrew, Prince Antonio, Cavonte, and Baby Skippy, along with 4 great-grandchildren, who all brought her tremendous joy.

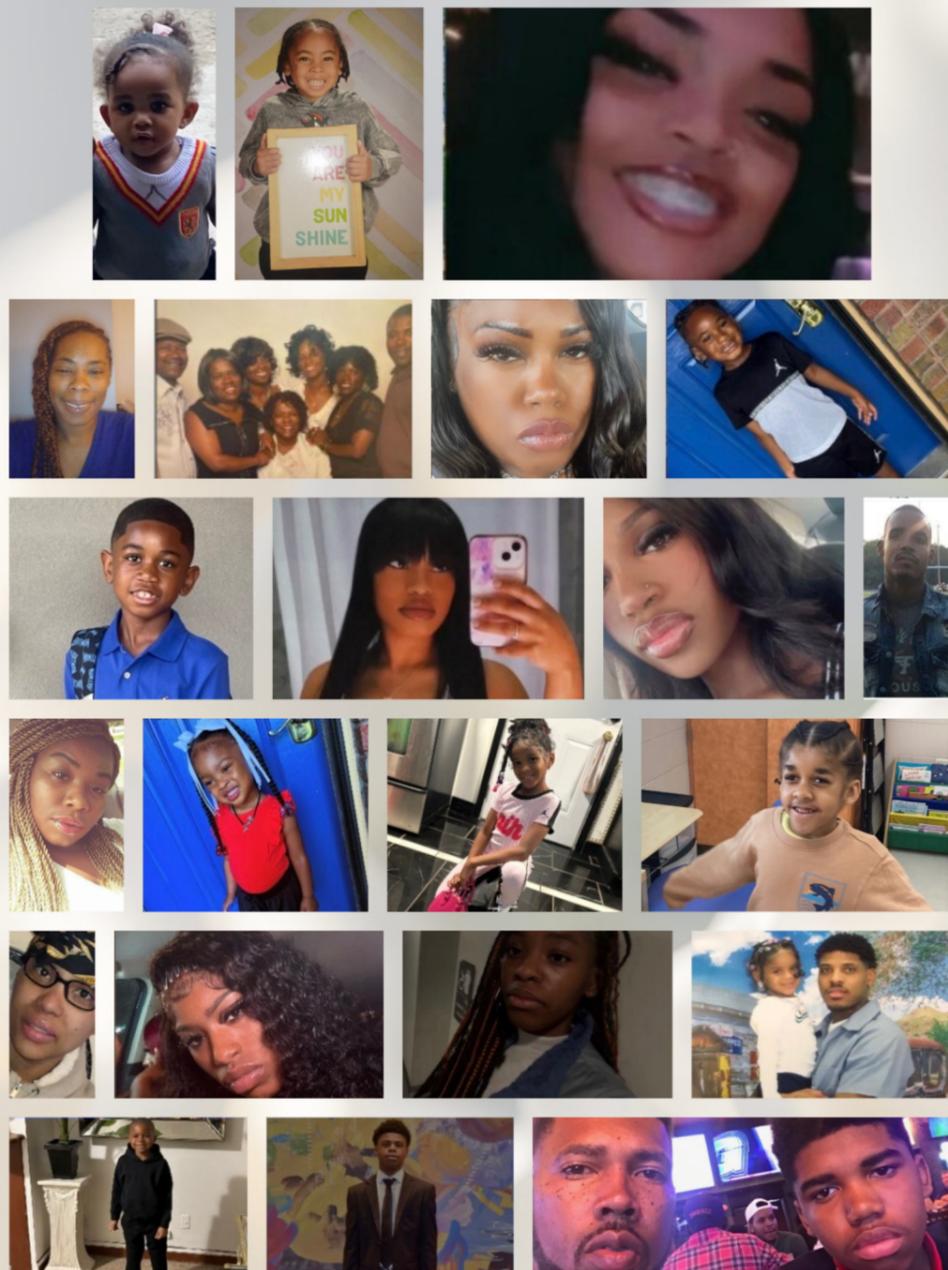

Gloria was passionate about her work as a State Tested Nursing Assistant (STNA), dedicating her life to caring for the elderly. She went above and beyond to ensure her patients felt seen, respected, and loved.

She enjoyed the simple pleasures of life—playing bingo, dancing, watching her favorite soap operas, and trying her luck with the lottery. Her laughter, light, and warmth could brighten any room.

Before her passing, Gloria reunited her life with God at the House of God, renewing her faith and finding spiritual peace.

She also endured the heartbreaking loss of her longtime soulmate, Samuel Field, whose memory remained forever in her heart.

Gloria's legacy lives on through her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, her ten siblings, and all the lives she touched. She will be deeply missed and never forgotten.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
