~ Remembering ~

Linda Lee Smith entered this world on November 27, 1962, in Rockdale County, Georgia, to her devoted mother, Mrs. Flossie S. Giles, and the late JC Sims, Sr.

She attended Heritage High School and later found joy in working at Krystal and Bojangles, where she was known for her strong work ethic and friendly spirit. Even after her health began to decline, Linda remained a source of love and laughter to all who knew her.

Linda was a woman full of life and energy. She loved spending quality time with her family, cooking hearty meals, and watching movies together. Known for her vibrant personality, Linda was often the life of the party—dancing, telling jokes, and lighting up every room she entered. Her presence was magnetic, and her laughter unforgettable.

On Friday, June 13, 2025, Linda was called home to eternal rest. She will be deeply missed by all who were blessed to know her. She is preceded in death by her father, JC Sims, Sr.; her beloved son, Quinata McTell Lett; and her brothers, Willie Ross Smith and Jessie Lee Smith.

Linda’s loving memory will forever be cherished by her mother, Flossie S. Giles; her son, Marcus Keith Lett; her sisters, Mary Nell Smith, Gladys Baisden, and Judy Sims; her brothers, Luther James Smith, Jerome (Kim) Smith, and JC Sims, Jr.; her cherished grandchildren, Qui’Neiyah Lett, Quin’Trelus Lett, Quin’Zaryia Lett, Marcylya Lett, Marcayla Lett, Marcus Lett, Quin’ Zuri Lett and Quinata Hudson; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends—all of whom she loved dearly.

Her love, laughter, and legacy will live on in the hearts of many.
