John 14:1-3

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

When I am gone release me, let me go – I have so many things to see and do, you must not tie yourself to me with tears. Be thankful for our many beautiful years. I gave to you all my love. You can only guess How much you gave to me in Happiness. I thank you for the love you all have shown. But now it's time I traveled on home alone. So, grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a time that we must part. So, bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on, and if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me. I'll be near, and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear.

Celebrating His Spirit

Steven Glenn Wright was born on May 20th, 1961, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Doris Jean Wright and Louis James Couston.

He grew up in downtown Cincinnati where he attended Porter Jr. High School and Taft High School.

He enjoyed making people laugh. He never met a stranger. He loved taking chances and never missed an opportunity to have things his way. That's why we called him our ghetto Frank Sinatra. He was always happy and loved telling his jokes. Also, he had a passion for telling his stories and talking about life in general. Steven was known for letting people know what was on his mind and how he felt about life's different situations. Steven had many talents, he excelled in home cooked meals. He will always be remembered for the impact he made on our lives.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Doris Jean Wright; father, Lous James Couston; sister, Marilyn McEwen and brothers, Allen Wright and Richard Hill

On December 7, 2023, at U. C. Health Steven went to his heavenly home.

Steven leaves his memories to be cherished by four daughters, Latrasha Brooks, Crystal Porter, Shannon Hightower and Tequila Brown; four sons, William Porter, Lavior Hightower, Steven Hightower and Kevin Hightower; stepdaughter, Unika Hightower; sisters, Sharon Wright, Debbie Wright and Lenise Wright; brothers, Lavelle Wright and Kenneth Hill, 31 grandchildren, one great-granddaughter; best friends, Michael Adkins and Germaine Britten, special friend, Latosha Jones and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
