Letters From Heaven
A poem by Chelsey Davis
For Summer Hunt and Family

Today I met my Papa
On a morning so crisp, yet so blue
We look down from Heaven on all of you

Today I met my Papa
I asked him "Papa why so soon?"
Amidst the gloom we watched something beautiful bloom
As the family filled the room

Today I met my Papa
He told me we couldn't stay together here in Heaven long
And that I belong with all of you

Today I met my Papa
He helped paint the sky so blue
As he will miss all of you

In Loving Memory of

Charles Royal Hunt
