OBITUARY

Mr. Gary McCoy, a hardworking and humble man whose quiet strength and generosity touched many lives, was born on February 11, 1948, in Savannah, Georgia, to the late Mr. LeVan McCoy and Mrs. Mary L. Speight-McCoy. He departed this life leaving behind a legacy of dedication to family, work, and service.

Gary was educated in Bulloch County and graduated from William James High School in Statesboro, Georgia. In 1968, he proudly answered the call to serve his country by joining the United States Army. He completed basic training at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and served as a member of the 1st Battalion, 319th Field Artillery Regiment. During his military service, he completed Basic Airborne Training and earned his Parachute Badge. He was honorably discharged in 1971.

Following his military service, Gary worked for ESPY Concrete before beginning a long and dedicated career with CSX Railroad. After 35 years of faithful service, he retired as a conductor.

Gary found joy in life's simple pleasures. He enjoyed cars, spending time in rural areas surrounded by open land, grilling, westerns, long drives, and music. Though quiet by nature, he was incredibly giving, especially to those within his close circle of family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, LeVan McCoy and Mary L. Speight-McCoy; his brother, Gill McCoy; and his son, James Reed.

He leaves to cherish his memory his sisters, Joyce (Mack) Dickerson, Judy (Maxi) Hudley, Corinthia (Keith) Anderson, and Delores (Basil) Aaron; his brothers, Demory (Linda) McCoy and Daniel McCoy; his sons, Jimmy (Renee) Everett, James F. Reed, Curtis Harrison, Gary Hayes, Terry McCoy, and Preston McCoy; his grandchildren, Jimmy Taylor, Jordan B. Everett, Jamari Reed, Shaquille Harrison, Ashley Harrison, Dasaun Harrison, Nekayla Hayes, Kenneth Hayes, Shelby Hayes, and Masi Nasir McCoy; along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

Gary McCoy will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him. His quiet presence and hardworking spirit will forever remain in the hearts and memories of those he leaves behind.
