

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one, I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done.

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.

Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.

I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me.

It was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side.

Don't cry for me.

I am not alone.

The angels are with me to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.

All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me.

This is not the end.

I'll be waiting here for you

when we meet again.

Obituary

Alfreda Jones, born on November 26, 1943, passed away on September 9, 2024, at the age of 80. She was a woman known for her infectious sense of humor, often spicing up gatherings with her playful jokes and bold personality. Her love for the lottery and games of chance was unparalleled, with bingo and the casino being her favorite pastimes. Freda and her sisters, Dump and Bonnie, would drag poor Chrissy, Marlene, and Kisses up to Dayton, Ohio, for afternoon bingo, then to the casino, and back for night bingo. Freda's passion for spending time with her family and creating lasting memories was evident in everything she did. She cherished the time spent with her loved ones, relishing their company, listening to music, playing serious spades games with her granddaughter Starr, frying pig's feet, and spreading joy with her mischievous spirit.

In her zest for life, Freda will always be remembered for her spirited nature, often displaying her feisty side. Everyone knows that despite her tough exterior, those who knew her understand that beneath it all, she loved deeply and had a heart of pure gold. She raised and took care of many people in her life, especially during her time living in the Lincoln Courts.

Freda was the wife of the late Harold Jones, and a dear sister to Jimmy Bean, Yvonne Mathis, Wayne Thompson, Aaron Mathis, the late William Bean, and the late Rachel Thompson. She is also preceded in death by her grandsons Brandon Kelly and Ronald O'Neal Steele Jr., and her niece Gail Millow and Betty Ligon. She is survived by a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, nieces, nephews, family, and friends. Her lifelong friends include Barbra Jean (BJ), Delois Byers, Margret (Pee Wee), cousin Norma Jean, and Shirlene Menefield.

In her memory, her legacy of love, laughter, and spontaneity will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
