David Harper Jr.

JULY 30, 1977 - DECEMBER 25, 2025

David Harper Jr., 48, of Lake Charles, Louisiana, passed away on Thursday, December 25, 2025.

Born on July 30, 1977, in Morehead City, North Carolina, David was the beloved son of Rev. David and Pamela Harper. Growing up at Cedar Point Pentecostal Holiness Church, David developed a deep love for the Lord and a strong appreciation for the Word of God. He especially loved singing gospel music and had a true gift of encouragement, often blessing others with his uplifting and heartfelt words.

David loved his family more than anything and worked hard to provide for their needs. He cherished time spent playing with his children and was known for his athletic nature. He enjoyed basketball, boxing, and weightlifting, activities that reflected both his energy and discipline.

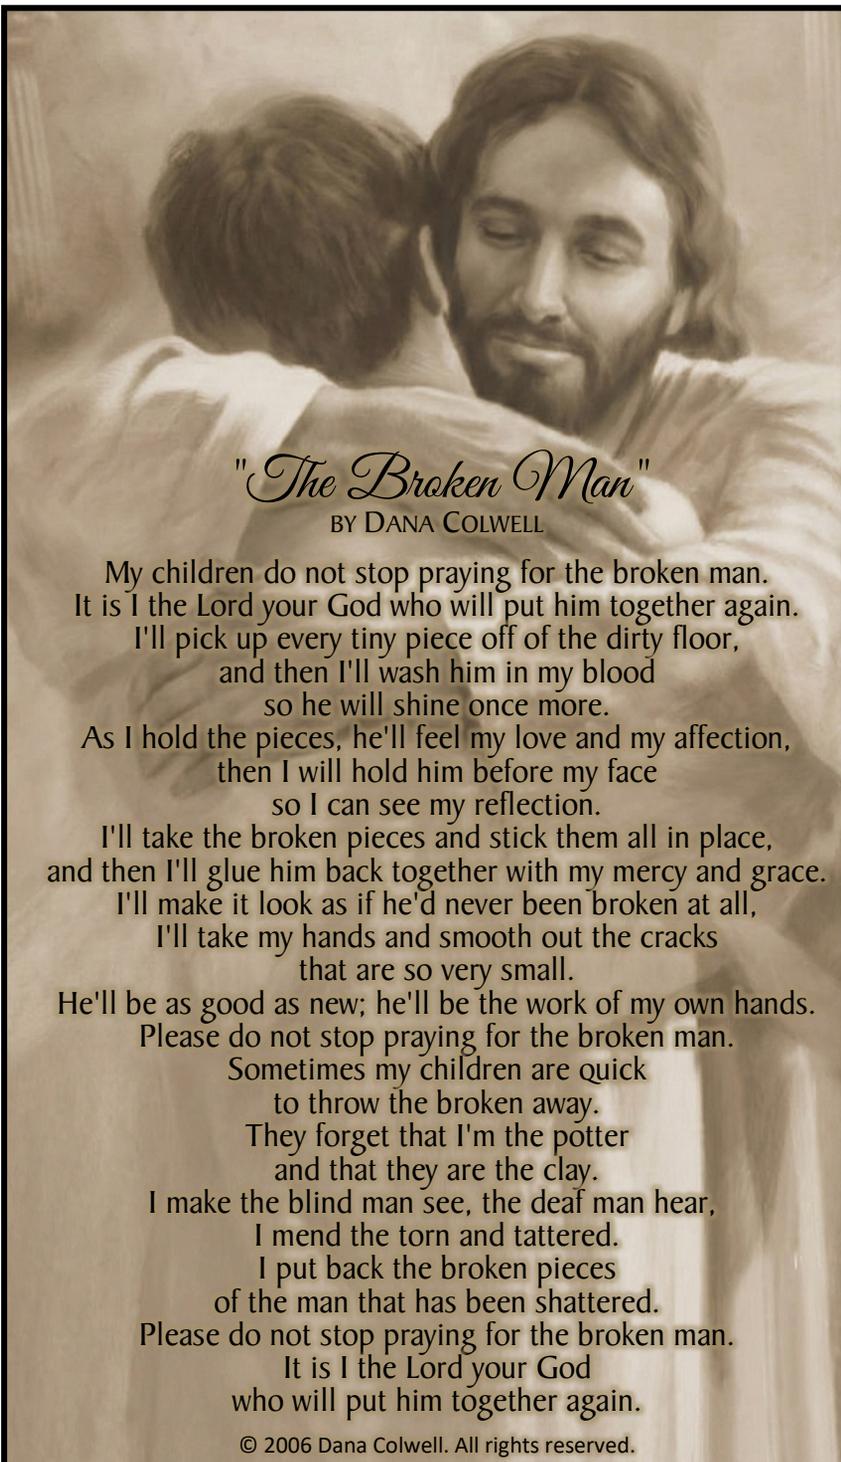

David will be remembered for his faith, his devotion to his family, and the kindness and encouragement he freely gave to others.

Those remaining to cherish his memory are his wife, Rose Romero of Lake Charles, LA; sons, Nathan Harper of Newport, NC, Jaycob Apao Jr., Hunter Romero, David Harper III, Malachi Harper, and Paden Harper, all of Lake Charles, LA; parents, Rev. David Harper Sr. and Pamela Brinson Harper of Newport, NC; sister, Dana Colwell (Daniel) of Havelock, NC; and nephew, Luca Colwell.

"The Broken Man"

BY DANA COLWELL

My children do not stop praying for the broken man.
It is I the Lord your God who will put him together again.

I'll pick up every tiny piece off of the dirty floor,
and then I'll wash him in my blood
so he will shine once more.

As I hold the pieces, he'll feel my love and my affection, then I will hold him before my face
so I can see my reflection.

I'll take the broken pieces and stick them all in place,
and then I'll glue him back together with my mercy and grace.

I'll make it look as if he'd never been broken at all,
I'll take my hands and smooth out the cracks
that are so very small.

He'll be as good as new; he'll be the work of my own hands.
Please do not stop praying for the broken man.

Sometimes my children are quick to throw the broken away.

They forget that I'm the potter
and that they are the clay.

I make the blind man see, the deaf man hear,
I mend the torn and tattered.

I put back the broken pieces of the man that has been shattered.

Please do not stop praying for the broken man.

It is I the Lord your God who will put him together again.
