A LIFE THAT TOUCHED SO MANY

OBITUARY

Ms. Sandra Yvonne Jennings, affectionately known as “San,” was born on February 16, 1960, in Covington, Georgia, to Mrs. Geneva Jennings and the late Mr. Willie Jennings Jr. She was the first of four children. She was preceded in death by her husband, Mr. Charles Burley, and her beloved sisters, Ms. Lanthia Jennings and Ms. Aretha Jennings. On September 26, 2025, Sandra peacefully departed this life.

Sandra was a proud graduate of Newton County High School, Class of 1978. A gifted athlete, she excelled on the softball field where she was known as “Lady J.” She also shined in track and field, where she and her teammates set a record in the 4x100 meter relay—a legacy of speed, strength, and determination that still stands today.

Sandra’s life was filled with many joys. She loved the game of softball, had a fondness for the color yellow, and enjoyed butter peas. She cherished watching the original Karate Kid film and delighted in spending time with her mother watching cowboy movies. Most of all, her greatest happiness came from being with and loving her grandchildren, who adoringly knew her as “Ganny.”

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Damarco (Aliah) Wyatt; her daughter, Taequanna Jennings; her mother, Mrs. Geneva Jennings; and her sister, Ms. Connie Jennings. Her grandchildren—Dasia, Bryant Jr. (“BJ”), Damiya, Abella, August, and Abigail—will forever treasure the love of their Ganny. Her devoted nephew, Jomandi Jennings, will also hold her memory close. In addition, she is survived by a host of cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who were blessed by her love, laughter, and light.
