With Grateful Hearts

Our family would like to express our deepest and most sincere gratitude for the overwhelming love, prayers, and support shown to us during the passing of our beautiful baby girl, Veronyka Diamond Michaela.

Every kind word, embrace, prayer, message, and act of compassion has brought comfort to our hearts during this unimaginable time. Your love has reminded us that we are not alone in our grief and that Veronyka's life, though brief, has touched so many.

Thank you for honoring her, remembering her, and surrounding our family with grace, strength, and unwavering support. We will forever carry your kindness with us as we continue to hold our precious daughter in our hearts.

With love and appreciation,

The Family of Veronyka Diamond Michaela

Veronyka Diamond Michaela

JOHNSON

JUNE 27, 2007 -
JANUARY 14, 2026

Veronyka Diamond Michaela Johnson was a precious and sacred gift from God, lovingly formed by His hands and known by Him before time began, born June 27, 2007. Though her time on this earth was brief, her life fulfilled a divine purpose - one of love, connection, selflessness and eternal hope.

From the moment she was known, Veronyka was deeply cherished. She carried with her a promise of joy and the reminder of God's perfect design. Scripture tells us, "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit" (Psalm 34:18), and it is in this promise that her family finds comfort. Veronyka now rests in the presence of the Lord, wrapped in His peace, light and unending love, free from all pain and disease.

Through her fight with RMC, she showed us how to trust God, to never give up and to show love to others. One of her last wishes, which she was unable to fulfill due to the disease was the wish to donate her eggs to give someone else the opportunity to have a family.

Veronyka is the beloved daughter of Jeremy and Patricia Johnson, whose hearts will forever carry her. She is lovingly remembered by her siblings Ahriana Johnson, Ariyahna Allen and Josiah Johnson. She leaves behind her beautiful nieces, Ahmina and Ahniya Hightower, and her cute nephew, Amiri Hightower, each of whom will always be connected to her by an unbreakable bond of love.

She is also survived by her Grammy, Elaine Jackson; her grandfathers Sylvester Harden, Larry Johnson and Courtney McNeely; her maternal great-grandparents, Jackson and Ella Ware; her aunts, LaShaun Curtis and Sonya (Kainon) Braden; and her uncles Eric Harden, Sylvester Miller, Kenneth (Staci) Tyson, Andre Johnson, Charles (Kaitia) McNeely, Mareo Mathews, Robert Benham, William Johnigan, Lamar Miles, Brian Berry, Brandon (Danielle) McNeely. Veronyka was deeply loved by all of her extended family including all her cousins she would cheer on and joke with. She will be deeply missed by her sister/very best friend since 1st grade, Amaya Kizine and her special aunts: Sarah Ireland, Kelly McMurtry Alley, Helen Ransom, Marsha Baylor, Molly Gosney Beale, Cathy Quarles and Ashley Fouts. Her special family, Dr & Mrs Engus Carter & Brianna.

She was welcomed into heaven by her grandmother for whom she was named, Verna Mae Johnson, her uncle Kevin Johnson and a host of other family members.

Though the ache of her absence is profound, Veronyka's family holds tightly to the promise found in God's Word: "He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain." (Revelation 21:4) Her life is a testament to faith, hope, and the assurance that love does not end - it is simply transformed.

Veronyka Diamond Michaela will forever be remembered as a beautiful soul, an answered prayer, and now, a perfect angel resting in eternal peace.

To Our Diamond

From the moment we knew of you, our hearts were changed forever. You were loved beyond measure, prayed over, and treasured more deeply than words could ever express. Though our time with you was brief, your life carried a purpose far greater than we could have imagined.

You taught us what it means to love completely and without limits. Through you, God showed us the depth of His love and the strength found in trusting Him, even when our hearts are broken. We may not understand His plan, but we trust His promise—that you are safe, whole, and resting in His eternal peace.

We take comfort in knowing that you are now in the presence of Jesus, where there is no pain, no sorrow, and no fear. The Bible tells us that God gathers His children close, and we believe you are being held with a love even greater than ours. Until the day we are reunited, we hold onto the hope of heaven and the assurance that this separation is not forever.

You will always be our daughter. Your name will always be spoken with love, your memory honored, and your place in our family forever secure. You live on in our prayers, in the love we carry for you, and in the faith that sustains us through each day. Thank you, our beautiful angel, for choosing us to be your parents. Thank you for the love you gave us, even in your short time here. We will carry you in our hearts for all the days of our lives.

We love you endlessly—
now, always, and forever.
With all our love,
Mom & Dad

TO OUR LITTLE SISTER

To my little sister,
I just want to say I love you.
Shine bright beautiful like you always have.
Ana

To My Ronni,
To be loved is to be seen and to be seen is to be known.
To the brightest diamond of 'The Johnson Family', my baby sister, my K.K. "My Ronni". The past few days
I've been writing this letter to you unsure about what I needed to say because I never believed I'd have to do this. There is so much I have to say and so much that I feel that couldn't be summed in eighteen years. I could yap on in this letter about how I feel just to remind myself how it felt to annoy you with my ramblings but I'll provide you some relief by getting to the point. I love you and miss you greatly. Thank you for showing me what it means to see people and love them in their love language. Your ability to empathize and understand what others need is something I'll always admire. Thinking of you always,
Your Sister,
