

Gone Fishing

I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.
Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.
We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.
To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'.

Celebrating The Life Of

Gregory “Jesse” Owens

June 3, 1953

September 7, 2026

Gregory Allen Owens was born to Donald and Jacquelyn (Decker) Owens on June 3, 1953, in Huron. He grew up in Iroquois, graduating in 1971 from Huron High School.

After graduation, he went to Springfield College before attending vocational school in Sioux City, Iowa for welding. After various employments in the area, he returned home to Iroquois where he ultimately retired from Larson Digging.

He was an avid fisherman, and loved spending time fishing at the various lakes and rivers around South Dakota.

Gregory was preceded in death by his parents, Donald and Jacquelyn,

Jesse is survived by his siblings, Mary Owens of Elkton, Douglas Owens of Waseca, Minnesota, David "Charlie" Owens of Iroquois, Chris (Maureen) Owens of Westend, North Carolina, Patrick (Linda) Owens of Iroquois, Elizabeth (Marty) Bodie of Las Vegas, Nevada, Michael Owens of Iroquois and Timothy Owens of Seattle, Washington; along with many nieces, nephews and fishing buddies.

Jesse passed away Monday, September 7, 2026, at the Huron Region Medical Center while surrounded by his family, at the age of 73 years, 3 months and 4 days.
