

Roots of Grace, Hands of Love

She was the steady heart of home,
A gentle light through joy and shade,
Her devotion written quietly.
In every sacrifice she made.

A loving wife, a guiding mother,
A grandmother so warm and kind,
She bridged the generations softly,
Leaving a legacy behind.

Her kitchen filled with comforting warmth,
her gentle laughter,
soft and deep,
The endless love she planted here
Is ours to forever hold and keep.
