

Feel no guilt in laughter,
 I'd know how much you care.
 Feel no sorrow in a smile that I am not here to share.
 You cannot grieve forever;
 I would not want you to.
 I'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
 So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
 The days we spent together, all the happiness we shared.
 Let memories surround you,
 a word someone may say Will suddenly recapture
 a time, an hour, a day, That brings me back as clearly as though I were still here, And fills you with the feeling that I am always near.
 For if you keep those moments,
 we will never be apart
 And I will live forever locked safely within your heart.

"God's Garden" by Melissa Shreve

*God looked around his garden and found an empty place
 He then looked down upon the Earth and saw your tired face
 He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
 With the help of his angels they flew you to your heavenly place Gods garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best He knew you were suffering, he knew you were in pain
 He knew that you would never get well on Earth again
 He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb
 He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine"
 It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone
 For part of us went with you the day God called you home.*
